EXPECTATIONS OF A CORE GROUP

Nothing excites us more than to think about the people God is calling to be a part of a Harvest core group. You are about to begin one of the greatest adventures of your lives, one filled with hard work, much prayer, great joy and amazement. In order to be part of the core group, you should be interested in hands-on participation.

We want you and your family to make a wise decision and to be completely prepared by having accurate expectations. Many will tell you that there is nothing more joyful and nothing harder than planting a church.

We want our core group members to be ready and well informed!

In this letter you will find a high-level look at the stages of planting a Harvest Bible Chapel, a broad timeline for launching the church and some clarification on expectations.

The first three stages fall under the leadership of the Harvest Bible Fellowship. The last two stages fall under the leadership of each local plant's elders.

1. PRE-LAUNCH - CORE GROUP

During this stage we will build the core group, from which we will recruit a leadership team, share vision, pray, and set up finances. Harvest Bible Fellowship will begin the search for a senior pastor and begin the process of incorporation.

Primary Needs: Prayer, people, encouragement, preparation, patience, finances.

Average Timeframe: 2-3 months

2. PRE-LAUNCH - LAUNCH TEAM

During this stage, the core group will gather and meet together on a weekly basis (Saturday evening or Sunday evening, not Sunday morning) for study of the Word, prayer, worship and planning. A launch date is set and the core group becomes a Launch Team. A location will be secured, a worship leader found, a worship team formed. Members of the core group will be assigned to areas of service based on gifting and need. Greatest focus will be on the primary ministries of worship, children's, small groups, assimilation, finance, administration, and promotion.

Primary Needs: Prayer, people, finances, worship leader, participation, sacrifice, networking, promotion, location.

Average Timeframe: 4-6 months

3. LAUNCH

During this stage, the new church emerges publicly for worship services and extended ministry. The launch team becomes a church. Harvest Bible Fellowship will serve as the elders of the new plant for the first year. All major ministry components will be planned, prepared and ready to go prior to the launch date. These ministries include preaching, worship, children's, small groups, assimilation, administration, and logistics.

Primary Needs: Prayer, sacrifice, finances, participation, set up/break down, follow-up, promotion.

Average Timeframe: 7-9 months

4. POST-LAUNCH

During this stage the new church begins to grow, bear fruit and multiply. Ministry growth will take place as will the addition of new ministries such as student ministries, mission and compassion, possibly men's and women's ministry. Pruning also takes place in this stage. Trials, challenges, disappointments, discipline will cause some to leave but ultimately it will strengthen and bring maturity to the body.

Primary Needs: Prayer, sacrifice, finances, endurance, discipleship, evangelism, courage.

5. MATURATION

During this stage the church is established, strong and autonomous in its ability to thrive on its own. It is a ministry-giving ministry-multiplying body. It has deep roots and a resilient base evidenced by a deep and growing fruitfulness and the church's ability to endure difficulties. It is a church-planting church.

Our experience in church planting has shown us that to go from "preparation" (a beginning core group) to "launch" is a six-to-nine-month process. Six months is a minimum and there are many critical milestones that could push the timeline past nine months if not secured. Some key milestones are finding the right senior pastor, the worship leader, a location to meet, and growing a sufficient core group with the gifts and abilities to participate in the various ministry components needed for launch.

EXPECTATIONS:

Right expectations pave the way for personal commitment and team alignment. We desire to clearly communicate both our expectations of you and what you can expect from Harvest Bible Fellowship.

You are fully aligned with our mission, vision, values, and distinctives.

Harvest is a contemporary church built on these 4 Pillars: proclaiming the authority of God's Word without apology; lifting high the name of Jesus Christ in worship; believing firmly in the power of prayer; and sharing the good news of Jesus with boldness.

DO OUR VALUES ALIGN WITH AND STIR YOUR SPIRIT?

You are willing to submit to the leadership of HBF and the senior pastor.

Harvest Bible Fellowship along with the senior pastor will serve as the elders of the new plant for the first year. They will strive to lead the local HBC in a way that is obedient to God's Word. The reality is that you may not always agree with or understand the decisions that will be made.

CAN YOU FOLLOW, SUPPORT, AND SPEAK WELL OF THE LEADERSHIP?

You have healthy motives for joining the Core Team.

You are coming primarily because you sense God calling you to be a part of planting a new church committed to Harvest Bible Chapel's mission, values and distinctives.

You are not coming:

- To get more control and responsibility in a church.
- To run away from difficulties in your current church.
- Expecting to come on staff at HBC down the road.

To the best of your ability, you will make a healthy church transition.

Those leaving a current local church to participate with the HBC plant should "leave well." Tell the leadership of your current local church what you are going to do. Ask for their blessing and prayer support. Within reason, fulfill your previously made commitments and after leaving, speak well of your former church.

You are prepared for the constant change of church planting (flexibility).

Church planting does not provide the routine, comforts, and predictability of a large established church. All involved will need to be flexible.

You realize sacrifice will be the norm - not the exception.

There is no doubt that it is a sacrifice for you and your family to be a part of a church plant. We will not immediately have first-rate facilities, a thriving student ministry, or other blessings of an established church. God will honor your sacrifice and abundantly bless you and your family despite the absence of these comforts. It is critical that you know these things will not be available immediately.

You are aware of and committed to prepare for spiritual warfare.

Spiritual warfare is real and church planting is a direct and strategic assault against Satan and the kingdom of darkness. We must be vigilant to put on the full armor of God and cover everything we do in prayer.

You are committed to financially support the vision of the local HBC in proportion to your income.

The church is funded by God's people supporting the work, and giving generously to the work of the church is the New Testament norm. "Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also" (Luke 12:34).

YOUR EXPECTATIONS OF HARVEST BIBLE FELLOWSHIP:

HBF is passionately committed to planting life-giving churches that are built on the Word of God.

The commitment to the Word is most clearly expressed in the 4 Pillars of Harvest.

HBF is committed to pursuing a quality of discipleship, not a quantity of disciples.

We focus on the depth of our ministries and trust God with the breadth.

HBF is committed to growth.

No, this is not a contradiction to our commitment to a quality of discipleship. Healthy things grow. Growth brings change. In order to facilitate growth we need to make room for new people.

HBF will be diligent and proactive in the search, hiring and training of the senior pastor.

HBF owns the responsibility of hiring and training the senior pastor. We take this responsibility seriously.

HBF will serve, along with the senior pastor, as the elders for the first year in the church plant.

We take seriously the Biblical admonition to not lay hands on anyone quickly. Serving as the plant's elders for a year allows for an adequate amount of time to observe potential elders.

HBF is committed to purity and unity.

Purity and unity within Christ's church is essential. You can expect the leadership of HBF to act immediately in dealing with sin and to resolve conflict among our people.

Our great desire is that Christ would be exalted in and through the lives of His people, as preparing to plant a new Harvest Bible Chapel is prayerfully considered.

COMMITMENTS OF A CORE GROUP

Harvest Bible Fellowship has had the privilege of working with people in Core Groups who are interested in planting a Harvest Bible Chapel. In order to to formally continue in this church-planting process the core group agrees to the following commitments:

1. A commitment to the Four Pillars and core values of Harvest Bible Chapel as outlined in Attachment A.
2. A commitment to quality discipleship as defined: authentic disciples of Jesus are those who Worship Christ, Walk with Christ, and Work for Christ.
3. A commitment to the Harvest Bible Chapel doctrinal statement as outlined in Attachment B.
4. A commitment to the Harvest Bible Chapel by-laws as outlined in Attachment C.
5. A commitment to an Elder form of church government as outlined in Attachment D.
6. A commitment to sign and follow the expectations outlined in the Trademark Sublicense Agreement as outlined in Attachment E.
7. A commitment to the name “Harvest Bible Chapel.” Harvest Bible Fellowship will add a geographic location to the city name (e.g. Harvest Bible Chapel Indianapolis West).
8. A commitment to church planting. Each Harvest Bible Chapel contributes 5% of its annual budget to Harvest Bible Fellowship. There is no cap to the dollar value of the contributions. Each church may give annually at the beginning for the year or placed on a monthly contribution schedule.
9. A commitment for the Senior Pastor and other key staff to participate in on-going training seminars and sessions for church planters as deemed appropriate by Harvest Bible Fellowship.
10. A commitment that if the church’s Senior Pastor resigns for any reason within the first five years after the church’s first public worship service as a Harvest Bible Chapel, Harvest Bible Fellowship will work with the church’s elder board as an equal partner to select a new senior pastor.
11. A commitment that Harvest Bible Fellowship would serve with the Senior Pastor as elders of the church in the first year. At the end of the first year (approximately), Harvest Bible Fellowship with the Senior Pastor would appoint elders.
12. A commitment to fellowship with the other Harvest Bible Chapels in the Harvest Bible Fellowship. Harvest University and other conferences and retreats are to be priorities for all Harvest Bible Chapel Senior Pastors, elders and key leaders. A core value of Harvest Bible Fellowship is that we influence by relationship, not by mandate.

On behalf of the leadership team of _____, I have read and agree to the commitments necessary to plant a Harvest Bible Chapel.

FOUR PILLARS OF HARVEST BIBLE CHAPEL

ATTACHMENT A

After much prayer and seeking God, the founding elders of Harvest Bible Chapel identified the following four pillars, which we believe to be the foundational essentials of a church that God blesses. The Lord has done incredible things in our midst as we have focused on these pillars.

James MacDonald, Founding and Senior Pastor of Harvest Bible Chapel, wrote the following explication on the four pillars in 1998.

PILLAR 1

PREACHING THE AUTHORITY OF GOD'S WORD WITHOUT APOLOGY

Preaching has fallen on hard times. The seeker movement often jettisons the Word of God in favor of talk that “influences” people to Christ, using what Paul called “the persuasive words of man’s wisdom” (1 Corinthians 2:4). At the same time, the worship movement often relegates the proclamation of God’s Word to “whatever time is left.” Some seem to ask, “Why hear about God when you can experience Him?” as though God is experienced more when we speak to Him than when He speaks to us.

The “thus saith the Lord” proclamation of God’s Word is very difficult to find on a given Sunday morning. Oh, there are lots of people talking about God, parsing the text of Scripture, even dispensing Bible information, but who can find anointed, passionate preaching? Where can we find preaching from one who has been gripped by the Spirit and the Word, one who brings the message with power and authority? Where is preaching that grips hearers’ souls with the conviction of the Holy Spirit? I am not concerned with those of us who aim for this and often fall short, but with those who are missing the mark and don’t even know it, those who have reduced the biblical content of their messages and are “healing my people slightly, saying peace peace when there is no peace,” (Jeremiah 6:14) rather than “this is the way; walk in it” (Isaiah 30:21).

Without this kind of preaching in our worship we simply experience God the way we want Him to be. We write the songs, we include the parts about Him that we like, and we avoid the rest. Without careful exposition of the whole counsel of God, alongside our singing to God, we are in danger of worshiping a god that we have “made with our own hands” (Isaiah 2:8). Repeatedly in the gospels the people’s response to Jesus’ teaching was amazement at the authority with which He taught. He didn’t couch his teaching with biblical explanations to gain their respect. He didn’t bury the truth beneath both sides of the argument and discuss multiple interpretations. He didn’t equivocate the hard edge of truth with endless meandering to avoid misunderstanding. Above all, He did not try to make the people comfortable or chase after those who walked away. He even acknowledged the difficulty of acceptance by the people: “this is a hard saying who can accept it” (John 6:60, 66). Psalm 138:2 tells us that God has “exalted His word above His name.” We believe that God is looking for houses of worship where people can hear His voice. People all around us are grasping for answers. They are tired of churches that dilute the truth, that thin the language of sin and redemption to gain a hearing. People are looking for a place where equivocation is out and absolute truth is in. At Harvest Bible, we have tried from the start to be that kind of church. Though we have much to learn about what it means to bring a biblical message of authority and urgency, to really “speak for God,” that is one of the pillars upon which we are based, and that is our earnest, prayerful desire.

LIFTING HIGH THE NAME OF JESUS CHRIST IN WORSHIP

Is it possible that our worship is getting too emotional? Does our worship need a larger infusion of truth to keep it balanced? Remember the Samaritan woman in John 4:22 who was chastised by Jesus for worshipping in ignorance? “You worship what you do not know,” He said. When emotion becomes the engine leading our worship instead of the caboose following biblical truth, the train will go quickly off the tracks. When emotion becomes the master, dictating what is true instead of servant participation in what is true, false doctrine cannot be far away. On the other hand, truth without spirit is also defective worship. My wife does not want to be told I love her because it is time to say it again, and God is not impressed with the cold recitations of robotic worshipers mouthing words because it’s 11 a.m. on Sunday morning. God says, “These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me,” (Isaiah 29:13). Most of us who grew up in evangelical churches remember what I would call “truth worship,” hymns filled with wonderful theology and truth about God. The problem was that truth raced by so quickly there was often no time for it to sink down into our spirits. Worship made it to our heads but not often to our hearts. After a five verse rendition of “A Mighty Fortress Is Our God,” one could only remark, “Wow, that was really true!” That kind of head worship without the heart, truth worship without the spirit entering in, is what Jesus condemned in John 4:24. “God is spirit and those who worship must worship in spirit and in truth.”

Why does it seem that so many churches have opted for “truth” or “spirit” worship? Is it because the balance is so difficult to find? We have tried to be very forthright in this by telling newcomers that if they come from a “truth worship experience,” they should understand that people are free to clap or raise their hands and that extended times of worship are the norm for us. We let them know that they must not resent the presence of emotion in our worship but learn to “enter in.” At the same time we instruct newcomers from a “spirit worship” background that exuberant dancing about or waving of arms should be restricted to their personal times with the Lord so as not to be the cause of someone’s attention turning from Jesus to them. We believe that God has honored the balance of truth and spirit, in our worship. What a joy it has been to see “intellectual Christians” experience their worship rather than just understanding it and equally thrilling to see “spirit worshipers” free themselves from the mid-week let down of seeing church as an emotional fix. Twenty years ago, most churches were either truth or spirit oriented.

Today I believe that God is doing the greatest and deepest works in churches that are seeking a balance. We have struggled for that and certainly have erred on both sides at times, but we believe the balance between spirit and truth is the key to being the kind of worshiper God is seeking (John 4:23).

PILLAR 3

BELIEVING FIRMLY IN THE POWER OF PRAYER

As you read the gospels, do you notice that there are many things Jesus did not teach His disciples to do? As far as we know Jesus did not teach His disciples to preach or teach. He did not teach them how to heal nor did He teach them how to organize and administer a large organization. He did not teach them how to win friends and influence people. He did not even teach them how to lead, except by example. What Jesus did teach His disciples was how to pray! The gospels record that one day the disciples simply sat and watched Jesus pray. Whether it was the fervency of His prayer or the length or content of His prayer we do not know: Obviously, the disciples were moved and inspired because “when He ceased, one of them said unto Him, ‘Lord, teach us to pray’ “ (Luke 11:1). Jesus prayed before His ministry began, before meals, before a big decision and before an important day. He prayed during acts of service, times of relational pressure, in sorrow and in the midst of temptation.

Jesus prayed after a stressful day, after a spiritual victory, after a provision of God and after completing a job that God had given Him to do. Can we afford to do less? Whatever you believe about the book of Acts, it is certainly clear that the early church was a supernatural church. There were no seminars on “if you do A plus B you will get C.” We believe that God’s kind of church is a supernatural church—a place where things are happening that are not humanly explainable. I am not talking about bizarre unbiblical manifestations, just dramatic conversions, physical and emotional healing, and direct specific answers to prayer. You know, real miracles. Many times my mind is saying “I can’t do it with out Him,” yet my day planner indicates that I am trying to go it alone. Only when I get on my knees and get desperate for God does my true need for Him become more than intellectual assent.

For the last 10 years the most consistent barometer of God’s blessing upon our fellowship has been our willingness to “pray the price.” By that we do not mean God does the work we desire when a certain amount of prayer has been prayed, only that God does His deepest works when people are spiritually fit to receive them. Prayer is preparation for that work. I could take time to recount the miraculous answers to prayer that have come and how they have powerfully enriched our church and kindled the fires of prayer, but after 10 years I am convinced we still have so far to go in this matter of prayer. Nowhere does Satan attack the Church more than when it begins to pray. Early morning prayer meetings, all night prayer meetings, small group prayer, 24-hour prayer vigils, weeks of prayer, months of prayer - all of this we have done and increasingly must do because we believe firmly in the power of prayer.

PILLAR 4

SHARING THE GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST WITH BOLDNESS

All the emphasis on church growth troubles me. Our church has certainly grown, and I am not opposed to large churches. However, the desire by pastors to have large churches, the endless counting and analyzing of church attendance and what C.S. Lewis called “posing and posturing and look at me and aren't I a good boy," is doing more harm than good. Though it began with a good goal, the church growth movement has compromised both the message of the gospel and the biblical method for its propagation. The focus on human persuasion in evangelism has produced an array of church growth methods that could be accurately sub-titled "how to fill your church with tares." The early church appears to have placed no emphasis on evangelistic methodology. Their approach was simple and powerful, they were BOLD! Many times in the New Testament the Greek word translated boldness which literally means "openness" or "candor," to speak freely especially in the face of hostility. It does not imply using a loud voice or an obnoxious presentation of spiritual truth that disregards the willingness of the listener. Boldness is the Spirit-directed conviction that one must share the good news of Jesus Christ and not fear the response or reproach of the listener. Spirit-led boldness has been replaced in our day by "the fear of man which brings a snare" (Proverbs 29:25).

Who are we to think that we can share the gospel in a way that makes people comfortable, when Stephen, James, Paul-even Jesus Christ himself-were beaten, ridiculed and ultimately killed for boldly proclaiming the truth. Modern proponents of the "subtle gospel" must consider Peter a fool for saying, "we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:13). Would to God that the unsaved in our day could see our boldness and marvel realizing that we have "been with Jesus" (Acts 4:13). It's all right there in Acts 4. As we rely upon God for supernatural boldness, some respond and receive Christ. Others become very angry and reject or even attack us; then we continue in prayer for boldness. Is not the easy way, but it is God's way. Our fear of man is understandable-even Paul asked for prayer, "that I may speak boldly as I ought to speak" (Ephesians 6:20) - but it is not acceptable. Our problem is that we want to talk about Jesus and remain popular with those who reject Him. We want the approval of our hearers more than the approval of God (see Galatians 1:10). We have opted for a sociological approach to sharing the gospel rather than a supernatural one.

For almost 10 years now, we have challenged our people to be bold witnesses for Jesus Christ, to "go out into the highways and compel them to come in." We have not always reached those we wanted to reach, but we have discovered there are people all around us whom God has ripened to the gospel through the painful circumstances of life. Through this witness God has been faithful and provided a miraculous harvest of souls. Though some Christians are more gifted in evangelism than others, all believers are called to be bold witnesses for Jesus. Boldness is not something we can work up ourselves, but it is something the Lord will give to those who persistently ask. "The wicked flee when no one pursues, but the righteous are as bold as a lion" (Proverbs 28:1).

The bottom line is this: the Church should be a place where God is clearly at work. In and around all the variety He allows, these foundational essentials invite and allow Him to make His power and glory known, instead of merely displaying the ingenuity of those in ministry. Is God making His power known where you worship? In truly biblical ways? I pray that He is. Though we desire to do even more to make our church a place where God is at work, we believe strongly that God will bless a church that preaches His Word without apology, continues in prayer, shares the gospel with boldness and exalts the name of Jesus through biblical worship.

May the Spirit of our Lord assist our meditation on these things so that we may all know how to conduct ourselves in the Church of our living God, which is "the pillar and ground of the truth" (1 Timothy 3:15).

DOCTRINE OF HARVEST BIBLE CHAPEL

ATTACHMENT B

THE SCRIPTURES

We believe the sixty-six books of the Old and New Testaments to be the full record of God's self-disclosure to mankind. Different men, while writing according to their own styles and personalities, were supernaturally moved along by the Holy Spirit to record God's very words, inerrant in the original writings. Therefore, those applying themselves to study its literal, historical-grammatical context can accurately understand God's Word. Scripture is fully trustworthy as our final and sufficient authority for all of life (2 Timothy 3:16-17; 2 Peter 1:20-21).

THE TRIUNE GOD

We believe in the one living and true God, eternally (John 17:3) existing in perfect unity as three equally and fully divine Persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19-20). Each member of the Godhead, while executing distinct but complementary roles in redemptive history, has precisely the same nature, attributes, and being, and is equally worthy of the same glory and honor and obedience (John 1:1-4; Acts 5:3-4).

GOD THE FATHER

We believe God the Father created all things in six literal days for His glory according to His own will (Revelation 4:11), through His Son, Jesus Christ. He upholds all things by the Word of His power and grace, exercising sovereign headship over all creation, providence, and redemption (Colossians 1:17, Hebrews 1:3).

GOD THE SON

We believe that Jesus Christ, the eternal Son, moved by love in accordance with the will of the Father, took on human flesh (John 1:1, 14, 18). Conceived through the miraculous work of the Holy Spirit, He was born of the virgin Mary. He, being fully God and fully man (John 14:8-9), lived a sinless life and sacrificially shed His blood and died on the cross in our place accomplishing redemption for all who place their faith in Him. He arose visibly and bodily from the dead three days later and ascended into heaven, where, at the Father's right hand, He is now Head of His Body the Church, the only Savior and Mediator between God and man, and will return to earth in power and glory to consummate His redemptive mission (1 Timothy 3:16).

GOD THE SPIRIT

We believe that the Holy Spirit, in all that He does, glorifies the Lord Jesus Christ during this age. He convicts the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment. He draws the unredeemed to repentance and faith, and at salvation imparts new spiritual life to the believer, bringing that person into union with Christ and the Body of Christ. The Holy Spirit sanctifies, seals, fills, guides, instructs, comforts, equips, empowers, permanently indwells at salvation, and bestows spiritual gifts to the believer for Christ-like living and service (John 16:8; 13:15; Titus 3:5; Ephesians 1:22; 4:11-12; Romans 8:9-17; 12:4-8; 1 Corinthians 3:16; 12:4-5, 11-13, 19; Galatians 5:25; Hebrews 2:1-4; 2 Corinthians 12:12).

MANKIND

We believe that God created mankind—male and female—in His own image and likeness, free of sin, to glorify Himself and enjoy His fellowship. Tempted by Satan, but in the sovereign plan of God, man freely chose to disobey God, bringing sin, death and condemnation to all mankind. All human beings, therefore, are totally depraved by nature and by choice. Alienated from God without defense or excuse, and subject to God's righteous wrath, all of mankind is in desperate need of the Savior (Genesis 3:1-6; Romans 3:10-19; Romans 1:18, 32).

SALVATION

We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, as the substitutionary atonement in our place, and that salvation is found in none other than Jesus Christ. Before Creation, God chose those who would be saved and granted this unearned grace solely based on His sovereign good pleasure. Jesus Christ's death on the cross was the sole and complete payment for sins, fully satisfying God's righteous wrath, for each person that turns from sin in repentance and places their faith in Christ alone by grace alone. At salvation each person is made a new creation by the Holy Spirit, declared righteous before God, and secured as an adopted child of God forever. Genuine faith continues in obedience and love for Jesus Christ with a life eager to glorify God and persevere to the end (Romans 8:37-39; 2 Corinthians 5:21; 1 Corinthians 12:13).

THE CHURCH

We believe that upon placing one's faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as Savior, the believer is made part of the Body of Christ, the one universal Church, of which Jesus Christ is the Head. The Scriptures command believers to gather locally in order to devote themselves to worship, prayer, teaching of the Word, fellowship, the ordinances of baptism and communion, service to the local body through the development and use of talents and spiritual gifts, and outreach to the world to make disciples (Ephesians 1:22-23; Acts 2:42-46; 1 Corinthians 14:26; Matthew 28:18-20). Wherever God's people meet regularly in obedience to this command, there is the local expression of the Church under the watchful care of a plurality of elders. A church's members are to work together in love and unity, intent on the ultimate purpose of glorifying Christ (Ephesians 4:16).

BAPTISM AND COMMUNION

We believe that Christian baptism is a public declaration of the believer's salvation in Christ, identifying with Christ in His death, burial, and resurrection symbolized by immersion in water. The Lord's Supper is the united commemoration by believers of Christ's death until He comes and should be preceded by a careful self-examination (Acts 2:41; Romans 6:3-6; 1 Corinthians 11:20-29).

MISSIONS

We believe it is the aim, duty, and privilege of every believer and local church fellowship to glorify God by responding as active participants in the Great Commission call of Jesus Christ to go and make disciples of all nations. We believe the primary focus and priority of this call is centered on efforts that establish, strengthen, and reproduce biblically-based churches, which will then plant churches that plant churches for future generations and God's glory.

THINGS TO COME

We believe in and expectantly await the glorious, visible, personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus Christ. The blessed hope of His return has vital bearing on the personal life, service, and mission of the believer (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18). We believe in the bodily resurrection of both the saved and the lost. The lost will be raised to judgment and experience eternal wrath in hell. The saved will be raised to eternal joy in the new heaven and new earth in the manifested presence of God (Acts 1:3, 9; Hebrews 7:25-26).

WHAT WE BELIEVE ABOUT...

ASSIMILATION AND CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

We believe in the importance of serving the body of Christ by offering clear paths for people to start and develop healthy and growing relationships with others in the church body. We value an intentional plan to help every interested person enjoy godly relationships in the church. Church membership is a by-product of people who are growing in Christ and who grasp the importance of serving the Lord by using their gifts to serve others in the local church.

BAPTISM AND COMMUNION

Baptism and communion are the two ordinances required in the church. We believe that Christian baptism by immersion in water is a public identification with Jesus Christ in His death, burial, and resurrection. Although baptism is not required for salvation, it is commanded of all believers and is for believers only (Matthew 28:19-20; Acts 2:38, 41; Acts 18:8). Scripture shows that a person was baptized after personally receiving forgiveness of sin through accepting Jesus Christ. The waters of baptism are a symbol of our death, burial, and resurrection to newness of life that happens when we become new creations in Christ (Colossians 2:12; 2 Corinthians 5:17; Romans 6:1-4).

Communion is the commemoration by believers of Christ's death, and a reminder - through the bread and the juice - of the Savior's broken body and shed blood. Communion is to be a time of confession of our sin and should be preceded by careful self-examination according to Acts 4:13; Romans 6:3-6; 1 Corinthians 11:20-29.

CHARISMATIC MOVEMENT

Harvest Bible Chapel is a non-charismatic, conservative, evangelical fellowship that welcomes all who know Jesus Christ as their Savior and all who are seeking Him. Those who claim to possess the gift of tongues and other sign gifts are welcome to worship and fellowship with us if they are willing to be a source of unity rather than division within our church body. We believe that the Christian life is supernatural and that the Lord continues to perform miracles. We also believe that current displays of the gift of tongues distract from the main task of the local church, which is to glorify God through the fulfillment of the Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-20).

Current displays of the gift of tongues:

- Give unwarranted prominence to the gift, which is described in the New Testament as being only one of many spiritual gifts (1 Corinthians 12).
- Emphasize speaking in tongues as the primary manifestation of the Spirit's work in a person's life, while minimizing the Spirit's work in producing a holy life (2 Corinthians 3:17-18; 2 Timothy 1:9), and a life that displays the fruits of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22).
- Often suggest that speaking in tongues is a required proof of being Spirit-filled or of possessing salvation in Christ, even though the Scriptures do not teach this.

Harvest Bible Chapel seeks to prevent the propagation of doctrines that would cause divisions within an individual church. Therefore, members of and adherents of Harvest Bible Chapel are not to propagate the teachings and emphases of the current charismatic movement. Although we do not control personal, individual interactions with the Lord, the expression of tongues and other sign gifts are not to be overtly expressed at meetings that are under the organization and authority of Harvest Bible Chapel.

CHURCH PLANTING

The church exists to glorify God through the fulfillment of the Great Commission, and in the spirit of the Great Commandment (Matthew 28:19-20, Matthew 22:37-38).

The Great Commission is fulfilled as disciples of Jesus Christ are made and grow in their relationship with Him and likeness to Him. God is glorified as we manifest His presence as we do His work (2 Timothy 2:2; 1 Corinthians 10:31).

In seeking to act upon the church's purpose, we recognize the extraordinary value in multiplying the reach of His ministry by planting local churches and by associating with existing, like-minded local churches. God is glorified when Harvest Bible Chapels and other like-minded churches associate with one another in order to foster relationships that edify, protect, encourage, support, and admonish.

The governing members, serving as directors of the Harvest Bible Chapel Elders Council, lead the association of Harvest Bible Chapels and affiliating churches and oversee church planting. The Elders Council assists affiliate churches to more effectively spread the Word of God and the ways of God in order to build His kingdom. The Elders Council desires to bless all affiliate churches through the mutual exchange of pulpit and music ministry, consulting services, research, conferences, and seed money devoted to church planting and pastoral education programs.

COUNSELING PHILOSOPHY

The Lord changes lives and accomplishes His purposes directly through reading and applying the Scriptures, meditating on the truths of the Scriptures, and prayer. The Lord also uses those who minister

His Word as they encourage, exhort, admonish, edify, implore, reprove, rebuke, and console others toward godliness. God needs no new or unique insight into the human condition in order to change lives, regardless of whether that insight is gained through psychology or some other tool of human origin. Problems that are approached by integrating the Scriptures with psychological theories tend to deceive individuals into diminishing the God of the Scriptures and into believing that He has not provided and cannot provide sufficient truth, insight, and wisdom that will change their lives (Colossians 2:8-10).

When psychology and other social sciences step beyond observing human behavior and seek to explain the causes of human behavior, they enter spiritual territory. Only the God of the Scriptures can explain causes and offer solutions that lead to godliness and a fruitful, joyful life. God has given us everything we need for life and godliness (2 Peter 1:3). He changes us as we discipline ourselves through obedience to the Word of God in the power of the Holy Spirit (1 Timothy 4:7; 2 Peter 1:5-11).

Each Christian's passion should be to become more like Christ and fulfill the Great Commandment to love the Lord with the entire heart, soul, mind, and strength (Romans 8:29; 1 John 3:2, Deuteronomy 6:5; Mark 12:30; Matthew 22:37-38).

The Christian who learns and applies the Word becomes mature and, in turn, can help others mature (2 Timothy 2:2).

CREATION, EVOLUTION, AND GOD'S SOVEREIGNTY

We believe God created the universe in six twenty-four hour days and that before He created the universe, nothing except God existed (Genesis 1; Exodus 31:17; Psalm 33:6-9; Acts 17:24; Hebrews 11:3; Colossians 1:16).

God chose to create the universe and all that is in it to reveal His glory, divine nature, eternal power, infinite wisdom, and supreme authority (Isaiah 43:7; Psalm 19:1-2; Jeremiah 10:12; Romans 1:20; Revelation 4:11).

We deny the theory of evolution, which states that nonliving substances gave rise to the first living material, which then reproduced and diversified to produce all living creatures. We believe that all people are descendants of Adam and Eve, whom God created personally and individually and as complete human beings (Genesis 1:26-27; Genesis 2:7; Genesis 2:21-22; 1 Corinthians 11:8-9). The fall of Adam and Eve infected all people with sin and death, but the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ gives the opportunity to receive God's gift of eternal life (Romans 5:18-19; 1 Corinthians 15:21-22).

God rules over His creation and cares about and is involved in the lives of individual people (Job 12:10; Acts 17:25; Acts 25:28; Colossians 1:17; Hebrews 1:13; Ephesians 4:6).

ETERNAL SECURITY OF THE BELIEVER

It is God's divine decision to save a person and it is God's kindness, forbearance, and patience that lead that person to repentance (Romans 2:4). All glory for the salvation and security of every believer belongs to God alone (Romans 3:21-31; Ephesians 1:7-9; Ephesians 2:8-9, Jude 1:24-25). We believe that everyone who is born again by the Spirit through Jesus Christ is eternally assured of salvation from the moment of conversion. This assurance relies on God's decisive grace rather than on the works of the Christian. Obedience, good works, and fruit-bearing do not earn or retain the believer's salvation but indicate the reality of the person's love of Christ and profession of faith (Luke 6:46; John 14:21; James 2:17-18).

Eternal security in salvation relies on the Lord's guarantee of each believer's adoption as His son or daughter (Galatians 4:4-7), His seal of the believer by the Holy Spirit (2 Corinthians 1:21-22; Ephesians 1:13-14), and the conviction that God gives the Holy Spirit to each believer as a down payment toward future bliss in heaven (2 Corinthians 1:21-22). A person who professes genuine faith in Christ immediately becomes His possession (Luke 23:42-43; Acts 2:40-41; Acts 16: 30-34), and nothing can snatch that person out of His hands (John 10:27-29). Having been bought with the price of Jesus Christ's crucifixion as complete payment for sin, Christians are not their own. They are Christ's possession (1 Corinthians 6:19-20). This assurance is absolutely certain, reserved in heaven, protected by God's unlimited power (1 Peter 1:4-5).

PROCESS OF SANCTIFICATION AND MATURITY

Mature disciples walk with Christ, worship Christ, and work for Christ. A person committed to a relationship with Christ focuses on a personal walk with Him, worshipping Him, and working for Him. That person will experience significant growth in personal sanctification and, therefore, will experience a closer personal relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ and will become "complete in Christ" (Colossians 1:28). We are committed to multiplying the godly characteristics of leaders' lives into others (2 Timothy 2:2). This multiplication of ministry is key to the healthy growth of the church. We believe the disciples of Jesus Christ should minister to one another in the local church, rather than one or a small number of professional pastors bearing total responsibility to care for the entire congregation. God has given spiritual gifts to all of His people to provide mutual ministry in the context of the healthy and strong local church (Ephesians 4:11-12).

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

Satan and his demonic servants viciously oppose the work God performs in and through His people (1 Peter 5:8; Genesis 3:1-7; Ephesians 6:12). God, who by His nature is infinitely more powerful than Satan, in due time will have complete and total victory over Satan (1 John 4:4; Revelation 20:1-10).

Although it is appropriate to pray in Jesus' name for protection against demonic activity, the Scriptures do not instruct the Christian to "bind Satan in Jesus' name." Rather, the Scriptures instruct the Christian to combat Satan by:

- Humbly drawing near to God, knowing that He will give grace, mercy, and strength (2 Corinthians 12:7-9; Hebrews 4:15-16; James 4:8; 1 Peter 5:6-10).
- Resisting Satan's temptations (James 4:7; 1 Peter 5:8-9).
- Rightly applying the truth of the Scriptures (Matthew 4:1-11; John 8:44; Ephesians 4:24-27).
- Forgiving offenses (2 Corinthians 2:10-11).
- Putting on the armor of God's truth, righteousness, readiness to share the Gospel, faith, salvation, and prayer (Ephesians 6:11-20).
- Demonstrating faithfulness to the Lord by enduring trials (Revelation 2:10; Revelation 2:13; Revelation 3:9-10).

SUFFICIENCY OF SCRIPTURE

We believe in the verbal, plenary inspiration of the Scriptures and that they contain all the words of God that we need in order to completely trust and obey Him. The Scriptures are inerrant in their original writings (Psalm 119:97-104; Psalm 119:160; Matthew 5:18; John 5:46-47; John 10:35; 2 Timothy 3:15-16), and are infallible in their instruction (Proverbs 6:32; 2 Peter 1:19), eternal in duration (Isaiah 40:8; 1 Peter 1:23-25); the final authority and the standard for faith and practice (Matthew 4:4; Psalm 119); and sufficient for counsel in every issue of life (Psalm 19:7-14; 2 Timothy 3:16). We believe that the very words of Scripture in the original Hebrew, Greek, and Aramaic are inspired by God. Therefore, we believe that the Bible versions which translate God's Word most literally into modern English should be preferred.

WOMEN IN MINISTRY

Harvest Bible Chapel affirms the God-ordained and significant role that women should play in establishing and leading the local church. Every leadership opportunity is open to women except those that are excluded by Scripture. The Scriptures clearly state that men are to serve in the office of Elder and that women are not to serve in church positions in which they exercise authority over men or in which they teach doctrine to men (1 Timothy 2:12; 1 Timothy 3:1-2; Titus 1:6-9). We do not see this as an issue of equality, for men and women are equal under God. The Bible is clear that men and women do not have the same roles. Qualified women should serve in any leadership position that is not forbidden in the Scriptures.

WORSHIP

The chief purpose of mankind is to glorify God by loving Him with the entire heart, soul, mind, and might (Deuteronomy 6:5; Isaiah 43:7; Matthew 22:37). All believing men, women, and children are to glorify God and thus fulfill the purpose of their existence. Worship glorifies God through adoration (Psalm 95:6), praise (Psalm 99:5), prayer (Daniel 6:10-11), thanksgiving (Nehemiah 12:46), and a complete yielding to Him (Romans 12:1). Worship declares His worth, pays Him homage, and celebrates Him in a life of devotion. We seek to worship the Lord in spirit and in truth (Exodus 15:1-21; 2 Samuel 6:14-16; Psalm 5:7; John 4:23-24; Revelation 4:11; 5:12).

Several tenets guide our worship. We seek to:

- Lift high the name of Jesus Christ (John 4:22-26; John 12:32; John 14:6).
- Lead God's people to lift their hearts and voices to Him, giving Him praise and thanks in music and lyrics (Nehemiah 12:45-46; Psalm 66:1-4; Psalm 95:1-2).
- Prepare hearts to hear the Lord speak through the proclamation of Scripture (Psalm 95:6-9; Matthew 28:19-20; Acts 2:41-42).
- Emphasize fresh and contemporary expressions while retaining traditional elements that recognize the richness of our heritage in the faith (Deuteronomy 32:7; Psalm 33:3; Isaiah 46:8-9; Matthew 13:32, Ephesians 5:19; Revelation 5:9).
- Pursue excellence in worship, knowing that God is worthy of our best (Exodus 12; Deuteronomy 17:1; Psalm 33:3; 1 Timothy 4:14-15; Hebrews 11:4).

ARTICLE 2 - STATEMENT OF FAITH & BELIEFS

2.01 WHAT WE BELIEVE

PILLARS

At the outset of Harvest Bible Chapel, four pillars were established as the biblical priorities for this ministry.

Proclaiming the authority of God's Word without apology (2 Timothy 4:2).

Lifting high the name of Jesus through worship (John 4:24).

Believing firmly in the power of prayer (Ephesians 6:18).

Sharing the good news of Jesus with boldness (Ephesians 6:19-20).

DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

THE SCRIPTURES

We believe the sixty-six books of the Old and New Testaments to be the full record of God's self-disclosure to mankind. Different men, while writing according to their own styles and personalities, were supernaturally moved along by the Holy Spirit to record God's very words, inerrant in the original writings. Therefore, those applying themselves to study its literal, historical-grammatical context can accurately understand God's Word. Scripture is fully trustworthy as our final and sufficient authority for all of life (2 Timothy 3:16-17; 2 Peter 1:20-21).

THE TRIUNE GOD

We believe in the one living and true God, eternally (John 17:3) existing in perfect unity as three equally and fully divine Persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19-20). Each member of the Godhead, while executing distinct but complementary roles in redemptive history, has precisely the same nature, attributes, and being, and is equally worthy of the same glory and honor and obedience (John 1:1-4; Acts 5:3-4).

GOD THE FATHER

We believe God the Father created all things in six literal days for His glory according to His own will (Revelation 4:11), through His Son, Jesus Christ. He upholds all things by the Word of His power and grace, exercising sovereign headship over all creation, providence, and redemption (Colossians 1:17; Hebrews 1:3).

GOD THE SON

We believe that Jesus Christ, the eternal Son, moved by love in accordance with the will of the Father, took on human flesh (John 1:1, 14, 18). Conceived through the miraculous work of the Holy Spirit, He was born of the virgin Mary. He, being fully God and fully man (John 14:8-9), lived a sinless life and sacrificially shed His blood and died on the cross in our place accomplishing redemption for all who place their faith in Him. He arose visibly and bodily from the dead three days later and ascended into heaven, where, at the Father's right hand, He is now Head of His Body the Church, the only Savior and Mediator between God and man, and will return to earth in power and glory to consummate His redemptive mission (1 Timothy 3:16).

GOD THE SPIRIT

We believe that the Holy Spirit, in all that He does, glorifies the Lord Jesus Christ during this age. He convicts the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment. He draws the unredeemed to repentance and faith, and at salvation imparts new spiritual life to the believer, bringing that person into union with Christ and the Body of Christ. The Holy Spirit sanctifies, seals, fills, guides, instructs, comforts, equips, empowers, permanently indwells at salvation, and bestows spiritual gifts to the believer for Christ-like living and service (John 16:8; 13:15; Titus 3:5; Ephesians 1:22; 4:11-12; Romans 8:9-17; 12:4-8; 1 Corinthians 3:16; 12:4-5, 11-13, 19; Galatians 5:25; Hebrews 2:1-4; 2 Corinthians 12:12).

MANKIND

We believe that God created mankind—male and female—in His own image and likeness, free of sin, to glorify Himself and enjoy His fellowship. Tempted by Satan, but in the sovereign plan of God, man freely chose to disobey God, bringing sin, death and condemnation to all mankind. All human beings, therefore, are totally depraved by nature and by choice. Alienated from God without defense or excuse, and subject to God's righteous wrath, all of mankind is in desperate need of the Savior (Genesis 3:1-6; Romans 3:10-19; Romans 1:18, 32).

SALVATION

We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, as the substitutionary atonement in our place, and that salvation is found in none other than Jesus Christ. Before Creation, God chose those who would be saved and granted this unearned grace solely based on His sovereign good pleasure. Jesus Christ's death on the cross was the sole and complete payment for sins, fully satisfying God's righteous wrath, for each person that turns from sin in repentance and places their faith in Christ alone by grace alone. At salvation each person is made a new creation by the Holy Spirit, declared righteous before God, and secured as an adopted child of God forever. Genuine faith continues in obedience and love for Jesus Christ with a life eager to glorify God and persevere to the end (Romans 8:37-39; 2 Corinthians 5:21; 1 Corinthians 12:13).

THE CHURCH

We believe that upon placing one's faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as Savior, the believer is made part of the Body of Christ, the one universal Church, of which Jesus Christ is the Head. The Scriptures command believers to gather locally in order to devote themselves to worship, prayer, teaching of the Word, fellowship, the ordinances of baptism and communion, service to the local body through the development and use of talents and spiritual gifts, and outreach to the world to make disciples (Ephesians 1:22-23; Acts 2:42-46; 1 Corinthians 14:26; Matthew 28:18-20). Wherever God's people meet regularly in obedience to this command, there is the local expression of the Church under the watchful care of a plurality of elders. A church's members are to work together in love and unity, intent on the ultimate purpose of glorifying Christ (Ephesians 4:16).

BAPTISM AND COMMUNION

We believe that Christian baptism is a public declaration of the believer's salvation in Christ, identifying with Christ in His death, burial, and resurrection symbolized by immersion in water. The Lord's Supper is the united commemoration by believers of Christ's death until He comes and should be preceded by a careful self-examination (Acts 2:41; Romans 6:3-6; 1 Corinthians 11:20-29).

MISSIONS

We believe it is the aim, duty, and privilege of every believer and local church fellowship to glorify God by responding as active participants in the Great Commission call of Jesus Christ to go and make disciples of all nations. We believe the primary focus and priority of this call is centered on efforts that establish, strengthen, and reproduce biblically-based churches, which will then plant churches that plant churches for future generations and God's glory.

THINGS TO COME

We believe in and expectantly await the glorious, visible, personal, premillennial return of the Lord Jesus Christ. The blessed hope of His return has vital bearing on the personal life, service, and mission of the believer (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18). We believe in the bodily resurrection of both the saved and the lost. The lost will be raised to judgment and experience eternal wrath in hell. The saved will be raised to eternal joy in the new heaven and new earth in the manifested presence of God (Acts 1:3, 9; Hebrews 7:25-26).

CHRISTIAN LIVING

CONCERNING CONDUCT

The Bible teaches that all believers are saints, set apart unto God and are thus responsible to live in such a manner as not to bring reproach upon the Savior and Lord (Romans 2:1-2; 1 Peter 1:14-19; 2 Timothy 2:19; Titus 2) lest the Word of God be blasphemed (1 Timothy 6:1; Titus 2:5). As Christians we should obey the Word of our Lord, seek the things which are above, walk as He walked, and accept as our responsibility the duty and privilege of bearing the Gospel to a lost world (1 John 2:3; Colossians 3: 1; Matthew 28:19-20). A victorious and fruitful Christian life is possible only for those who have presented themselves wholly to Christ and walk by the power of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit-filled life is the normal Christian life to be expected of all believers. (Romans 12:1,2; Galatians 5:16; Ephesians 5:18; Romans 6,7).

CONCERNING SEPARATION

Because of God's holy nature and a believer's high calling, Scripture teaches and commands personal and ecclesiastical separation from religious apostasy (2 John 7-11; Romans 16:17; Titus 3:10), from all sinful actions that reflect willful or continued disobedience to the Word of God (2 Thessalonians 2:15; 3:6,14-15; 1 Corinthians 5). This does not include separation from unbelievers who need the Gospel of Jesus Christ, nor does it include brothers and sisters in Christ who are walking in doctrinal or behavioral error but not under church discipline.

CONCERNING MARRIAGE AND SEXUALITY

Scripture clearly teaches that God is the sole authority in matters of marriage and sexuality for all people, and that marriage involves the sacred joining together of one man and one woman in faithful, permanent union (Genesis 2:18-24; Matthew 19:1-9; Mark 10:1-10; 1 Corinthians 6:9-20; Hebrews 13:4). God states in the Bible that he hates divorce (Malachi 2:16) and Scripture states that He intends the marriage union to last until one of the spouses dies (Genesis 2:24; 1 Corinthians 7:10-13). Sex is a gift from God to be enjoyed solely within this God-ordained marriage relationship, and God has clearly and expressly commanded abstinence from any form of sexual or intimate activity outside of this context, prohibiting as "sexual immorality" activities related to, for example: lustful thought, adultery, fornication, pornography, homosexuality, bisexuality, or polygamy (Leviticus 18; Matthew 5:27; Matthew 15:9; Romans 1:18-32; Romans 13:13; 1 Corinthians 5; 1 Corinthians 6:9-20; Galatians 5; Colossians 3:5; 1 Thessalonians 4:3-7; Hebrews 13:4; Jude 1:7).

Disobedience in these matters is sin, although it is no more or less offensive to God than any other sin (Romans 6:23a; 1 Corinthians 6:9-10; Galatians 5:19-21; Ephesians 5:3-5; Colossians 3:5-19), and Scripture is clear that God provides redemption, healing, freedom from the power of sin, and restoration to all who would turn from sin and embrace Jesus Christ by faith (Acts 16:31; Romans 1:16; Romans 6:23b; 1 Corinthians 6:11, Ephesians 2:1-10, Titus 3:3-7). Harvest Bible Chapel will love, disciple, exhort and patiently assist men and women repenting of sin and fighting sexual temptations of all kinds (1 Corinthians 10:13, Hebrews 2:17-18; Hebrews 4:14-16), and its firm conviction on Scripture's clear teaching on marriage and sexuality will not serve as grounds for bigotry, harassment, or fearful or hateful speech or action, which are forbidden by God and ineffective at producing change (Leviticus 19:17-18; 1 Corinthians 1:18-31; 1 Corinthians 2:1-5; Galatians 3:1-3; Ephesians 4:31-32; Colossians 4:5-6; 2 Timothy 2:24-26; James 1:19-21, 26; 1 Peter 2:1).

FINAL AUTHORITY

This Doctrinal Statement does not present the extent of our beliefs exhaustively. The Bible itself, as the Church's final and sufficient authority for all of life, is the sole and final source of all that the Church believes, and will be interpreted and applied to matters not expressly covered herein by the Church's Elder Board as provided in Section 7.01(a).

2.02 STEWARDSHIP OF FACILITIES, ASSETS, AND RESOURCES

(A) SCRIPTURAL DUTIES REGARDING STEWARDSHIP

Scripture is clear that God gives resources to His church to advance His kingdom until His return, and believers will be accountable to God for their use of His resources (1 Chronicles 29:12,14; Matthew 25:14-30; Luke 16:10-11; Luke 19:11-27; Romans 14:12; 1 Corinthians 3:10-15; 1 Corinthians 4:1-2; Hebrews 4:13; 1 Peter 4:10-11). Harvest Bible Chapel is determined to use its God-given resources for His glory.

(B) COMMITMENT

As a result, the property and other assets of the Church, including any facilities, buildings, campuses, real assets, personal assets, intangible property, intellectual property, or any other property or asset of any kind that is subject to the direction or control of the Church (together, the "Property"), is irrevocably dedicated to the fulfillment of the Great Commission and the Church's religious, charitable, and educational purposes set forth in Article 4 (together, the "Purposes"), for as long as they are owned by the Church. These Bylaws prohibit any policy, act or omission that would permit any of the Property to be used in a manner that is—or, in the sole determination of the Elder Board of the Church (the "Elder Board"), could be perceived to be—inconsistent with the Church's Purposes. Any person may enter Church Property to attend scheduled worship services or receive religious instruction or counseling without pre-qualification or categorical restriction of any kind; however, the Church's senior employees and staff (together, the "Staff"), under the governance of the Elder Board, (a) shall not permit any Property to be reserved or used (including for conferences, weddings, funerals or other events) by any person that will or may use such Property in a manner (or to convey, intentionally or by implication, a message) inconsistent with the Purposes and (b) are authorized to prohibit or restrict any individual's access to Church facilities in accordance with Section 14.06.

2.03 MATTERS OF EMPLOYMENT

The character and personal conduct of those who serve the Lord are of great importance to Him. (Micah 6:6-8; Luke 6:46-49; Matthew 7:21-23; James 1:22-27). As described in the Church's Policies, the Church is a religious organization that is permitted to use Scriptural criteria as an "occupational qualification" in matters relating to employment, including making decisions relating to hiring, terminations and promotions based on adherence to the Doctrinal Statement and other standards of biblical faith and practice. In such matters, the Church is permitted to operate under Section 702 of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and other laws, including Article 2-101(B)(2) of the Illinois Human Rights Act and Section 15 of the Illinois Religious Freedom and Marriage Fairness Act of 2013*, or such other laws as may be applicable from time to time.

ARTICLE 3 - PURPOSES

The Church is formed for any lawful purpose or purposes not expressly prohibited under the Act. The Church is organized and shall be operated exclusively for religious, charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Church's purposes also include the limited participation of the Church in any other activities, including taxable activities, but only to the extent the activities would not be prohibited by applicable law for participation by a tax-exempt organization. More particularly, but without limitation, the purposes (the "Purposes") of this Church are:

- (a) The study, practice and advancement of religion, specifically, to glorify God through the fulfillment of the Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-20) in the spirit of the Great Commandment (Matthew 22:37-39). The commission is fulfilled as disciples of Jesus Christ are made. God is glorified as we manifest His presence in doing so (2 Timothy 2:2; 1 Corinthians 10:31).
- (b) To express our beliefs by any appropriate form of expression, within any available medium, and in any location, through the Church's combined or separate formation, of a church, ministry, charity, school, or philanthropic institution, without limitation.
- (c) To equip, employ and discharge ministers of the Gospel, and others, to affect individual discipleship by conducting varied ministry gatherings at the Church, and elsewhere.
- (d) To collect and disburse any and all necessary funds for the maintenance of the Church and the accomplishment of its purpose.
- (e) To make distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.
- (f) This Church is also organized to promote, encourage, and foster any other similar religious, charitable and educational activities; to accept, hold, invest, reinvest and administer any gifts, legacies, bequests, devises, funds and property of any sort or nature, and to use, expend, or

* Laws will vary by state donate the income or principal thereof for, and to devote the same to, the foregoing purposes of the Church; and to do any and all lawful acts and things which may be necessary, useful, suitable, or proper for the furtherance or accomplishment of the purposes of this Church. Provided, however, no act may be performed which would violate Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, as it now refers to a church or as it may hereafter be amended.

ARTICLE 4 - ORGANIZATIONAL RESTRICTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws and in order to carry out the Purposes, the Church shall have all those powers set forth in the Act. Moreover, the Church shall have all implied powers necessary and proper to carry out its express powers. The powers of the Church to promote the Purposes are limited and restricted in the following manner:

- (a) The Church shall not pay dividends and no part of the net earnings of the Church shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its Members, organizers, officers or other private persons, except that the Church shall be authorized and empowered to make payments and distributions (including reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the Church) in furtherance of its purposes as set forth in the Articles or these Bylaws. No substantial part of the activities of the Church shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Church shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Articles or these Bylaws, the Church shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by (i) a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws, or (ii) a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.
- (b) The Church shall not accept any gift or grant if the gift or grant contains conditions that would in the determination of the Elder Board substantially restrict or violate any of the Church's religious, charitable, or educational purposes or if the gift or grant would require serving a private interest as opposed to a public interest.

ARTICLE 5 - AUTONOMY & GOVERNANCE

The Church is autonomous and maintains the right to govern its own affairs, independent of any denominational control. Recognizing, however, the benefits of cooperation with other Christian churches or other ministries of like faith in the fulfillment of its purposes, including world missions and otherwise, the Elder Board may permit the Church to voluntarily affiliate with any organizations.

ARTICLE 6 - MEMBERSHIP

6.01 MEMBERSHIP

The Church shall have one class of membership. Membership in this Church shall consist of all persons who have met the qualifications of membership and are listed in the Church's records as Members. The Elder Board has conferred upon the Staff the responsibility to administer, approve or not approve as defined in Section 6.02, all Candidates who have applied for membership in the Church. The new members shall have all the rights, privileges and responsibilities of a member of the Church (a "Member"). The Elder Board may adopt and amend application procedures for membership in the Church.

Members of the church do not participate in governance by voting. Members are encouraged to participate in Elder-called congregational meetings for purposes of transparent communication. Such meetings may include, as needed, a gathering of congregational input on major decisions facing the Church to assist the Elder Board in action or decision. Any member of the Church may request a private meeting with two or more Elder Board Members to understand better the ministry and governance of this Church.

6.02 QUALIFICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

The minimum qualifications for membership are as follows:

- (a) A personal commitment of faith in Jesus Christ for salvation;
- (b) Believer's Baptism by immersion as a public profession of personal faith in Christ for salvation;
- (c) Completion of a membership class or set of classes as defined by the Church; and
- (d) A commitment to abide by the Church's Membership Commitment.

The Members of the Church believe that the effectiveness of their joining together will be determined by the level of the commitment they make to Christ, to His Word and to one another. In a society where so few make commitments and fewer still keep them, Harvest Bible Chapel is seeking "a group of people who are enduringly determined to know the joy Christ intended for His body, the church." To this end Members of Harvest Bible Chapel must be willing to live in submission to the Doctrinal Statement and the governance of the Church set forth in these Bylaws, and membership in the Church carries with it the implicit understanding that Members will conduct themselves accordingly. Further, Members must be willing to abide by the entire Membership Commitment:

- I have by faith, become a follower of Jesus Christ and I have been baptized as a visible way of demonstrating that commitment;
- I will, with God's help, seek to maintain my consistent disciplines of prayer, Bible study, and personal evangelism;

- I will neither criticize nor listen to criticism concerning any Member(s) of this body and will, when personally offended, speak directly and lovingly with those involved; and
- I will financially support the ministries of the Church by faithfully giving back to the Lord a biblical portion of my increase.

6.03 TERMINATION AND DISMISSAL OF MEMBERSHIP

A Member shall be removed from Membership in the Church for the following reasons: (a) by personal request of the Member; (b) the transfer of membership to another church; (c) death; or (d) termination of membership by the Elder Board as it deems necessary.

The Elder Board may terminate a person's Church membership when, in the opinion of the Elder Board, the Member's life and conduct is not in accordance with the Membership Commitment or the Member's life/conduct negatively influences the Church or its testimony in the community. A Consensus of the Elder Board or the team of Elders to whom this purpose is delegated by the Elder Board shall be required in order to terminate an individual's Church membership. No period of prior notice shall be required for such termination.

6.04 RESTORATION OF MEMBERSHIP

Members whose membership has been terminated may be restored by the Elder Board according to the spirit of 2 Corinthians 2:7-8 and Galatians 6:1, when their actions are judged to be in accordance with the Membership Commitment as an evidence of their repentance. A Consensus of the Elder Board or the team of Elders to whom this purpose is delegated by the Elder Board may restore membership to a Member. Reinstated members may be required to repeat the membership application process.

ARTICLE 7 - GOVERNANCE: ELDERS AND LEADERSHIP

7.01 ELDER BOARD

(A) AUTHORITY

The Scriptures are clear that the spiritual oversight of a congregation rests with its elders. The Elder Board of the Church will consist of recognized men in the congregation whom the members of the Elder Board believe meet the qualifications of (1 Peter 5:1-5; 1 Timothy 3; Titus 1). Men may be recognized as Elders within the Church but participation in Church governance shall normally be restricted to Elders currently serving a term on the Elder Board. The Elder Board is made up of the Officers of the Elder Board (referred to as the "Executive Committee"), the Senior Pastor and other 'Staff Elders,' and men currently serving a term on the Elder Board. The Elder Board shall have responsibility in three main areas:

- (i) ensuring that the doctrine of the Church remains purely biblical;
- (ii) ensuring that the spiritual direction of the Church remains consistent with the Church's Statement of Faith and Beliefs as set forth in Article 2, the Church's Purposes as set forth in Article 3, and Policies which detail expectations for day-to-day ministry led by the church's Executive Staff and 'Staff Elders.'
- (iii) administering in grace, love and humility the biblical process of Church discipline, as outlined in Matthew 18:15-20 and Galatians 6:1-4, and as further described in the Church's Spiritual Discipline Policy.

In exercising their authority under the Scriptures, the Elder Board:

- (1) shall govern the spiritual welfare of the Church and its Members, primarily through their own pastoral care for congregants and regular reporting by Senior Staff, to ensure their conformity to established policies put forth by the Elder Board.
- (2) shall have all of the rights, powers, and responsibilities of a board of directors pursuant to the Act, and may exercise such rights, powers, and responsibilities to do all such acts and things permitted by the Act, the Articles, Policies or these Bylaws;
- (3) shall serve as the highest ecclesiastical tribunal of the Church. All doctrinal issues in the Church will be settled by the Elder Board. Membership in the Church carries with it the implicit understanding that the Elder Board shall be the Church's final interpretive authority on biblical meaning and application for the purpose of Church doctrine, practice, policy and discipline. In deciding such matters, the Elder Board shall subject themselves in humility to the absolute authority of the Bible and the standards of the best spiritual, financial, and operating interests of the Church and its Members; and
- (4) as further described in Section 7.04, may delegate responsibility or oversight regarding particular matters to other persons or committees as they see fit and in a manner consistent with the Act and these Bylaws.

(B) ELDER BOARD MEMBERSHIP

- (i) Qualifications. An Elder must exemplify the qualifications for an elder set out in Titus 1:6-9, that he be above reproach, able to teach, husband to one wife, not addicted to wine, temperate, not antagonistic, prudent, un-contentious, respectable, free from the love of money, hospitable, able to manage his own household, and not a new convert. Elders shall conform to these and other Scriptural principles in their public and private lives. In addition to these Scriptural qualifications, the Elder Board may at any time create, alter, amend, or remove other qualifications except those listed in the Scriptures. In keeping with Scripture's clear teaching regarding the exercising of authority within the church, only men will be considered for the office of Elder.
- (ii) Nomination and Selection. The Nominating Committee shall nominate as potential Elders men who are Members and meet the criteria set forth in these Bylaws, and whom they otherwise deem qualified. In addition, per these Bylaws, the Executive Committee will maintain a Nominating Committee to recommend to the Elder Board suitable Elder Board nominees for final approval of Elder Board membership.

- (iii) Review and Term limits; Term. Each Elder Board member will be asked for a three-year commitment. At the end of three years each Elder Board member (including those who are employees of the Church) will be reviewed, with the possibility of recommitment and reaffirmation by his fellow Elder Board members for a second, three-year term. During the review, both the individual and the other Elder Board members shall evaluate the participant's continued service as an Elder Board member, considering the qualifications set forth in Section 7.01(b)(i), as well as any personal factors that may affect his service. An individual's service as an Elder Board member may be discontinued by his own decision, by decision of the Elder Board or by decision of those to whom the Elder Board has delegated this process of review. A non-Staff Elder may not serve as a Board member for more than two consecutive three-year terms but may be reconsidered for Elder Board membership, subject to the regular selection process, after he has not served on the Elder Board for a year or more. The purpose of term limits is to open the Elder Board up to the broadest range of Elder candidates across all Church campuses, ethnicities, ages, histories and experiential background for the enrichment of local church governance. An Elder Board member appointed to fill a vacancy shall be appointed for the unexpired term of his predecessor.
- (iv) Composition. The Elder Board Chairman and all officers of the Elder Board will serve a duration of no longer than two consecutive three-year terms and may not be a Staff Elder. The role of chairman is for the purpose of facilitation and does not carry a greater level of authority than other Elder Board members. The Elder Board will normally consist of the Elder Board Chairman, the Senior Pastor and other Staff Elders, the other officers of the Church, and not less than 12 additional Elders, who will assume responsibility on the Elder Board as deemed necessary or advisable in accordance with this section. In total, the number of non-Staff Elders serving on the Board will be 75%, or greater, of the full Elder Board.
- (c) Special Duties. The Elder Board shall have the duties reserved exclusively for it by these Bylaws.

7.02 EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

(A) PURPOSE.

An Executive Committee of the Elder Board has been established to hold the Senior Staff accountable on behalf of the entire Elder Board, and to partner with the Senior Pastor in leading the Elder Board as a whole. It is the responsibility of the Executive Committee to:

- (i) serve as the legal authority for the Church;
- (ii) lead the Elder Board in the accomplishment of its purposes;
- (iii) achieve Consensus with the Elder Board prior to any modification or removal of any portion of this Church's Bylaws or Policies; and

- (iv) achieve Consensus with the Elder Board prior to any action beyond the authority granted to the Executive Committee in these Bylaws.

(B) AUTHORITY

The Executive Committee shall have sole authority and responsibility for:

- (i) reviewing and setting compensation of the Church's Senior Pastor (the Senior Pastor may not participate in the deliberations or approval of the Senior Pastor's compensation);
- (ii) review and approve compensation for senior Staff;
- (iii) accountability of the Church's executive Staff, including the Senior Pastor, and conducting an annual review of the senior Staff;
- (iv) reviewing and approving the annual budget prepared by the Finance Committee; and
- (v) making final determinations regarding real property and contractual obligations.

In exercising such authority and responsibility, the Executive Committee shall carry out its decisions in a spirit of unity with the Elder Board, maintaining the highest level of transparency, open communication and accountability to the Elder Board, being subject to any policy that the Executive Committee and the Elder Board may establish governing their relationship; or as otherwise expressly provided by these Bylaws.

(C) EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP

- (i) Qualifications; Nomination and Selection. The Elder Board shall nominate and select from among them Independent Persons meeting the criteria set forth in these Bylaws, and whom they otherwise deem qualified, to fill the Officer positions defined in Article 8 of these Bylaws and serve on the Executive Committee.

(A) Nominees must have served at least one year on the Elder Board.

(B) Noting the role of Senior Pastor accountability, nominees should be those with the leadership capacity, relational chemistry, and spiritual maturity to be a true and meaningful collective authority over the Senior Pastor. The strength and integrity of these relationships are to reflect the highest fidelity to all biblical mandates governing mutual submission and attention to preservation of the unity of the Holy Spirit.
(Ephesians 4:1-2)

- (ii) Term limits; Term. Officers will be eligible to serve in that capacity for up to two consecutive three-year terms regardless of previous tenure on the Elder Board prior to appointment to the Executive Committee. A man who has served two three-year terms may be reconsidered to be a member of the Executive Committee subject to the regular selection process, after he has not held a position on the Executive Committee or Elder Board for a year or more. An Elder Board member appointed to fill a vacancy on the Executive Committee shall be appointed for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

- (iii) Composition. The Executive Committee shall consist of the Senior Pastor and the Officers of the Church, as described in Section 8.01. No other Staff will serve on the Executive Committee, though some may attend meetings as requested from time to time for clarity of reporting and accountability (for example, the Senior Executive Pastor), but may not participate in the decision-making process. The Elder Board shall appoint an Executive Committee Chairman (described in Section 8.03(a)) that will preside at all meetings of the Executive Committee, except in such instances wherein his recusal from the meeting is required. The role of chairman is for the purpose of facilitation and does not carry a greater level of authority than other Executive Committee members.

7.03 ELDER BOARD AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ACTION.

Except where otherwise expressly stated herein, any action, vote, consent or approval of the Elder Board may be taken by Consensus of either (a) the Elder Board or (b) the Executive Committee, acting on behalf of the Elder Board, as provided by and in accordance with these Bylaws.

7.04 DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY; COMMITTEES.

(A) DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

To assist with the Elder Board's governance of the Church, the Executive Committee is authorized to delegate duties, authority and responsibilities to committees made up of Elder Board members, Staff members, internal or external advisors, or any combination thereof. Subject to Section 11, no such delegation shall relieve the Executive Committee or Executive Committee members, of any responsibility imposed by Scripture, by these Bylaws or otherwise imposed by law. Except as provided in Section 7.04(c), the Executive Committee may remove or replace any such Committee or terminate its delegation to any Staff member or advisor, at its own discretion with or without cause and with immediate effect.

(B) PERMANENT COMMITTEES

The Executive Committee has appointed the board of Deacons ("Deacon Board"), Finance Committee, Audit Committee, and Nominating Committee. The Deacon Board and these Committees, intended to be permanent, shall not be dissolved or removed without the consent of the Elder Board and the amendment of these Bylaws.

(C) SPECIFIC DELEGATION MATTERS

For the avoidance of doubt:

- (i) the delegation authority of the Executive Committee includes the authority to confer on an advisor the full power and authority to purchase or otherwise acquire stocks, bonds, securities, real estate and other investments on behalf of the Church; and to sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of the Church's assets and properties at a time and for a consideration that the advisor deems appropriate; and

- (ii) without express written authorization from the Executive Committee, no Committee or other person shall have the authority to: (A) amend the Articles; (B) adopt a plan of merger or a plan of consolidation with another Church or entity of any kind; (C) authorize the sale, lease, exchange, or mortgage of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the Church; (D) authorize the voluntary dissolution of the Church; (E) revoke proceedings for the voluntary dissolution of the Church; (F) amend, alter, or repeal the Bylaws; (G) approve any transaction to which the Church is a party and that involves a potential conflict of interest as defined in Article 12 below; or (H) take any action outside the scope of authority delegated to it by the Executive Committee. these Bylaws or in contravention of the Act.

(D) DEACON BOARD

- (i) Function. The office of Deacon is one that exists biblically to give leadership to the serving functions of the church (Acts 6). The Deacon Board will be responsible for matters including serving in financial stewardship, helping widows, Church facilities, security, benevolence ministry and any role assigned the Deacon Board Chairman on behalf of the Elder Board.
- (ii) Qualifications. As a minimum qualification, a Deacon must meet all of the criteria set out in 1 Timothy 3:8-12, including: an individual of dignity, above reproach, not double-tongued, first tested as a servant, not addicted to wine, being and having a faithful spouse, dignified, temperate, not fond of sordid gain, holding to the mystery of faith with a clear conscience, husband of one wife, and manages his household well. Deacons shall conform to these and other Scriptural principles in their public and private lives. In addition to these Scriptural qualifications, the Elder Board may at any time create, alter, amend, or remove other qualifications for Deacons outside of those listed in the Scriptures.
- (iii) Nomination and Selection. The Nominating Committee shall oversee the nomination process by which the selection of Members meeting the criteria set forth in these Bylaws, and whom they otherwise deem qualified, to serve as Deacons are chosen. The Nominating Committee shall present to the Elder Board the nominees for their Consensus approval.
- (iv) Composition. The Deacon Board Chairman shall be an Elder selected by the Elder Board with a term that parallels his term as an Elder. The role of Deacon Board Chairman is for the purpose of facilitation and does not carry a greater level of authority than other Deacon Board members. The Deacon Board Chairman and Deacon Board will work in tandem with Church Staff assigned by the Senior Pastor to coordinate Deacon activities in a way that compliments Church Staff working in those areas.
- (v) Review; Term. Each Deacon Board member will be asked for a three-year commitment. At the end of three years each Deacon Board member's service will be reviewed, with the possibility of recommitment and reaffirmation by his fellow Deacon Board members. During the review, the individual, other Deacon Board members, and any Elders to whom this role has been delegated, shall evaluate his continued service as a Deacon Board member, considering the qualifications set forth in Section 7.01(b), as well as any personal factors that may affect his service. An individual's service as a Deacon Board member may be discontinued by his own decision, by decision of the Deacon Board or by decision of the Elders to whom this evaluation has been delegated. A man who has served two three-year terms may be reconsidered to be a member of the Deacon Board, subject to the regular selection process, after he has not held a position on the Deacon Board for a year or more. The purpose of term limits is to open the Deacon Board up to the broadest range of Deacon candidates across all Church campuses, ethnicities, ages, histories, and experiential backgrounds for the enrichment of local church governance. A Deacon Board member appointed to fill a vacancy shall be appointed for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

(E) FINANCE COMMITTEE

- (i) Function. The finance committee provides wisdom and “hands-on” accountability to the senior financial officers of the Church (Church Treasurer, CFO, COO). The Finance Committee also oversees the Church's adherence to the financial portions of the Church's Conflict of Interest policy. They provide non-vocational verification that the Church is operating with financial transparency, through regular communication to the congregation, public meetings as needed and private conversations with Members who wish to learn in more detail about the Church's enduring commitment to best financial practices, true transparency, and Christ-honoring integrity. The Finance Committee shall:
 - (A) Review and Recommend an Annual Operating Budget. Annually, the Finance Committee will review the proposed operating budget for the ensuing fiscal year as presented by the Staff. After review and amendment, if necessary, the Finance Committee will recommend a final operating budget to the Executive Committee for approval. The approved operating budget formally confers spending authority for operating costs to Staff, subject to the policies and procedures adopted by the Elder Board. The Finance Committee will provide guidance on any significant modifications to the budget that occur during the year based on Elder Board-established budget amendment policies and parameters.
 - (B) Review Financial Results. Not less than quarterly, members of the Finance Committee will receive and review financial statements consisting of the then-current: (1) income and expense statement comparing budget to actual income and expenses; (2) mortgage payoff review; (3) cash flow projections compared to actual cash flow; and (4) key financial performance indicators that the Finance Committee deems relevant to its fiscal responsibility on behalf of the Executive Committee and Elder Board. These financial statements will be reviewed in a Finance Committee meeting with minutes that will highlight any financial issues. Unresolved issues will be brought to the Executive Committee at their next meeting for review and any needed action in accord with the Elder Board-established finance policy.
 - (C) Oversee Financial Policies. Annually, the Finance Committee may review the Elder Board's financial policy and make recommendations to the Executive Committee about any needed amendments. Such review will specifically include but not be limited to; terms of indebtedness, cash management, investment policy, risk management, financial monitoring and reporting, facility acquisition, employee benefit plans, signatory authority for expenditures and other policies that the Executive Committee or Finance Committee determines it prudent to review in maintaining the Church's Elder Board-mandated policy of highest integrity and best practices in all matters of financial management. The Executive Committee will present a summary of this Finance Committee report to the Elder Board.

- (ii) Qualifications; Nomination and Selection. The Nominating Committee shall oversee the nomination of those Members who possess skills in the disciplines of accounting, finance or business practices, and whom they otherwise deem qualified, to serve as Finance Committee members. In keeping with Scripture's clear invitation regarding believers' use of their gifts to serve the church, both men and women meeting these qualifications will be considered for Finance Committee membership. Those nominated will normally have three years of proven faithfulness to the Church in matters of biblical stewardship.
- (iii) Composition. The Finance Committee shall consist of at least three members whose terms of office shall be staggered. Finance Committee appointments shall be made initially, and reviewed annually, by the Executive Committee on behalf of the Elder Board.
- (iv) Term. Finance Committee members' terms will be three years in length. A Finance Committee member may serve two consecutive terms, but after the second term may not serve on the Finance Committee for at least one year.

(F) AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Finance Committee, via the Audit Committee, works annually with the external auditor to review the Church's financial practices seeking to uncover and alert the Finance Committee to any potential breaches of the Church's Conflict of Interest policy at a Staff or Elder level.

- (i) Function. The Audit Committee's role is to act as an advisory body to the Finance Committee by securing an audit firm and overseeing the annual external audit in all material aspects of the Church's financial reporting, control and audit functions. The Audit Committee's role includes a particular focus on the qualitative aspects of financial reporting, Church processes for the management of risk, and compliance with significant, applicable tax, legal, ethical, and regulatory requirements. The role also includes coordination with other standing Committees and maintenance of strong, positive working relationships with management, external and internal auditors, counsel, and other committee advisors. The Audit Committee shall report to Church Treasurer on its responsibilities.
- (ii) Qualifications; Nomination and Selection. The Nominating and Finance Committees shall nominate those Members who possess skills in the disciplines of accounting, finance or business practices, and whom they otherwise deem qualified, to serve as Audit Committee members. In keeping with Scripture's clear invitation regarding believers' use of their gifts to serve the church, both men and women meeting these qualifications will be considered for Audit Committee membership. Those nominated will normally have three years of proven faithfulness to the Church in matters of biblical stewardship.

- (iii) Composition. The Audit Committee shall consist of at least three members whose terms of office shall be staggered. Audit Committee appointments shall be made initially, and reviewed annually, by the Finance Committee. The Audit Committee Chairperson may not be a Staff member. Employees of the external auditing firm are not permitted to serve on the Audit Committee, but may serve in an advisory capacity.
- (iv) Term. Audit Committee members' terms will be three years in length. An Audit Committee member may serve two consecutive terms, but after the second term may not serve on the Audit Committee for at least one year.

(G) NOMINATING COMMITTEE

The Nominating Committee works with each of the Boards and Committees to select and review potential candidates for the permanent Boards and Committees referenced in these Bylaws.

- (i) Function. The Nominating Committee's role is to oversee the process of developing pools of candidates for the permanent Boards and Committees referenced in these Bylaws. This committee is responsible for developing the pool of candidates for the Elder Board specifically, and for overseeing that the nomination processes employed by the remaining Boards and Committees is in compliance with these Bylaws and will review the candidates with the Staff for input regarding character and acumen and then present the candidates for those Boards and Committees to the Elder Board for approval.
- (ii) Qualifications; Nomination and Selection. The Nominating Committee members shall be current members of the Elder Board nominated by their peers and then chosen by Consensus of the Elder Board.
- (iii) Composition. This committee will be chaired by the Former Elder Chairman office and shall consist of at least three members whose terms of office shall be staggered. With the exception of the Elder Board and Executive Committee, other Boards and Committees may form their own nominating committees to identify candidates for their respective Boards and Committees, but in doing so they are subject to the oversight and authority of the Nominating Committee.
- (iv) Term. Nominating Committee members' terms will be three years in length. A Nominating Committee member may serve two consecutive terms, but after the second term may not serve on the Nominating Committee for at least one year. Terms may not extend beyond the Nominating Committee member's Elder Board term of office.

(H) AD-HOC COMMITTEES

Additional committees to create policy, review governmental efficiency, nominate future leaders, address a particular Church issue, etc. will be established for the length of their effectiveness, until their report is received or their work completed. Such committees may be dissolved with or without cause and with immediate effect at the discretion of the Executive Committee acting on behalf of the Elder Board or the Elder board as a whole.

7.05 BOARD AND COMMITTEE GOVERNANCE

(A) MEETINGS

Meetings of the Elder Board, Executive Committee, Deacon Board or other Committees or bodies described in this Article 7 may be held either within or outside the State of Illinois, but shall be held at the Church's principal office in Rolling Meadows, Illinois if the notice thereof does not specify the location of the meeting. A regular or special meeting may be held at any place and time consented to by a majority of the Board or Committee members, before the meeting. If such consents are given, they shall be filed with the minutes of the meeting. Any meeting, regular or special, may also be held by conference telephone or similar remote communication technology. Those calling the meeting will make every effort to notify all members of the meeting in advance and given adequate time to attend in person or other remote technology. All Board or Committee members shall be deemed to be present in person at a meeting conducted in accordance with the above requirements. Regular meetings of the Executive Committee and Elder Board shall occur as needed, regularly monthly, but not less than seven times annually. Agenda items for meetings must be submitted to the appropriate chairman prior to the actual meeting.

(B) SPECIAL MEETINGS

A special meeting of the Executive Committee, or any other Board or Committee, may be called by the Senior Pastor or any three members of the Executive Committee. The Chair of all other Boards and Committees may also call a special meeting of their respective Board or Committee. In doing so, all members must be informed and invited. The Senior Pastor or Chairman of the Board or Committee will schedule the meeting at a time and place which permits the attendance of the members. The Senior Pastor may send a delegate in his place as needed.

(C) CONSENSUS

Each of the Boards and the Committees defined by these Bylaws shall act by Consensus. The Consensus of those present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be sufficient to constitute the act of the relevant Board or Committee, unless the act of a greater number is required by law or these Bylaws.

(D) ACTION WITHOUT MEETING EXCEPTIONS

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Executive Committee may be taken without a meeting if all of the Executive Committee members, individually or collectively, consent in writing to the action. Such action by written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Executive Committee. All other Boards and Committees must execute actions via meetings (in person, telephonically or by other means whereby members are able to participate in a Consensus decision process).

(E) QUORUM

A majority of the number of Board or Committee Members then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board or Committee. The Board or Committee Members present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business even if enough Board or Committee Members leave the meeting so that less than a quorum remains. However, no action may be approved thereafter without the Consensus of the number of Board or Committee Members in attendance required to constitute a quorum. If during the meeting a quorum cannot be achieved, then those present must adjourn and convene a meeting at a future date.

(F) DEADLOCK OF COMMITTEES

In the case where any Committee shall, by reason of deadlock, be unable to reach a Consensus on any issue before them, then, in such instance, the issue in question before the Committee shall be passed over and a defined time period shall be identified for the members of the Committee to seek prayer and wisdom from the Lord, so that after the specified period of time, the Committee may reconvene and come to a Consensus opinion. If the deadlock is not settled within thirty days of the meeting in which the deadlock occurred, then the issue shall be presented to the Elder Board for discussion and a Consensus to settle the deadlock.

(G) NO COMPENSATION

Board and Committee Members, including the Senior Pastor and other Staff Elders, shall not receive salaries or compensation for their services as Board or Committee Members to the Church. The Board or Committee may adopt a resolution providing for payment to Board or Committee Members for reimbursement of reasonable expenses for attendance, if any, at a meeting of the Board or Committee or other travel or other activities undertaken at the request of the Church.

(H) TERM OF OFFICE.

- (i) Termination and Vacancies. The term of any Board or Committee Member may terminate earlier if the Member becomes incapacitated or dies, ceases to qualify, resigns, or is removed as a Member of the Church. A vacancy on a Committee may be filled by an appointment made in the same manner as the original appointment. A person appointed to fill a vacancy on a Committee shall serve for the unexpired portion of the terminated Committee member's term.
- (ii) Resignation. Any Board or Committee Member may resign at any time by giving written notice to their Board or Committee Chairman or the Executive Committee. Such resignation shall take effect on the date of the receipt of such notice, or at any later time specified therein; and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.
- (iii) Involuntary removal. A Board or Committee member may be removed by a Consensus decision of the relevant Board or Committee or by a Consensus decision of the Elder Board or the Executive Committee acting on the Elder Board's behalf, if the Board or Committee believes an individual:
 - (A) is violating the Policy that governs the conduct of Board Members at Harvest Bible Chapel;
 - (B) fails to maintain the qualifications of the Board or Committee;
 - (C) instigates strife in the Board or Committee by failing to yield to the Consensus of the Board or Committee after he has been offered the opportunity to appropriately present his reason for disagreement with a Consensus decision of the Board or Committee; or

(D) violates the Conflict of Interest Policy in these Bylaws.

Any such removal shall take effect on the date of communication to the Board or Committee Member being removed, or at any later time as determined by the Board or Committee. Removal of Board or Committee members shall be effective whether or not accepted by such member.

The Senior Pastor may be removed solely in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 8.04(b).

- (i) Chairman and Vice-Chairman. Unless otherwise expressly stated herein, one member of each Board or Committee shall be designated as the chairman. Boards shall designate another member the vice chairman. The chairman and vice chairman of each Board and Committee shall be approved by the Executive Committee, on behalf of the Elder Board, with consultation from the outgoing chairman. The chairman shall call and facilitate all meetings. The role of chairman is for the purpose of facilitation and does not carry a greater level of authority than other Board or Committee members. When a Board chairman is absent, or is unable to perform, the vice chairman of that Board or Committee shall perform the duties of the chairman. When a vice chairman acts in place of the chairman, the vice chairman shall have all the responsibilities of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the chairman.

7.06 ROLE OF PASTORS, FORMER ELDER BOARD MEMBERS AND STAFF

According to 1Peter 5:1-5 the terms, “Elder,” and “Pastor” are used interchangeably to describe the same people. At Harvest Bible Chapel the term “Pastor” describes “elder-qualified” men who are employed by the Church in full-time vocational ministry. In keeping with 1 Timothy 5:17-18 and Romans 13:1, the pastors of the Church shall be accorded the same honor and respect as Elders when conducting their ministry on behalf of the Church, even though they do not have the same role in Church governance.

Throughout its history, Harvest Bible Chapel has been “led by the Staff,” meaning that under the governance of the Elders the Pastors of the Church, as well as its Staff, are responsible for ministry initiatives, day-to-day responsibility for all ministry operations, and other matters delegated to them by the Elder Board. The Elders will give intentional deference and supportive conduct to the Senior Pastor and Executive Staff as they lead the ministries of the Church. Similarly, the Senior Pastor and Executive Staff will ensure they and the entire Staff serve in glad submission to the final authority of the Elder Board and the Executive Committee including all parameters, Policies and, accountability structures set forth in these bylaws.

ARTICLE 8 - OFFICERS

8.01 OFFICER POSITIONS

The officers of the Church shall be the Senior Pastor, Elder Board Chairman, Executive Committee Chairman, Former Board Chairman, and Treasurer. The Executive Committee may recommend additional officer positions, define the authority and duties of each office position, and suggest persons to fill officer positions. The Elder Board must approve all recommendations and suggestions.

8.02 ELECTION AND TERM OF OFFICE

All officers of the Church, except the Senior Pastor, shall be recommended by the Executive Committee and approved by the Elder Board. The term of office of all offices other than that of Senior Pastor shall be up to six (6) years (two 3-year terms).

8.03 INDEPENDENT OFFICERS

- (a) Executive Committee Chairman. The Executive Committee Chairman shall be a man who is qualified defined in Section 7.01(b)(i) herein, and who is a member of the Elder Board.
- (b) Elder Board Chairman. The Elder Board Chairman shall be an Elder qualified and pursuant to Section 7.01(b)(i) herein, and otherwise qualified to serve as a chairman of the Elder Board. The Elder Board Chairman will act as the Vice-Chairman of the Executive Committee and be a de-facto member of the Executive Committee.
- (c) Former Board Chairman. As a general matter, the Former Chairman shall be the man who held the office of Elder Board Chairman immediately preceding the current Elder Board Chairman. In the event the Former Elder Board Chairman is unable or unwilling to assume this role the Elder Board will seek an individual with similar Elder Board tenure, including even an individual who held this office once before, for the Former Chairman office.
- (d) Treasurer. The Treasurer of the Church shall be an Elder who will work with the Church's CFO and shall provide oversight of those volunteers and Staff who: (i) have charge and custody of and are responsible for all funds and securities of the Church; (ii) receive and give receipts for moneys due and payable to the Church from any source; (iii) deposit all moneys in the name of the Church in banks, trust companies, or other depositories as provided in the Bylaws or as directed by the Executive Committee; (iv) write checks and disburse funds to discharge obligations of the Church; (v) maintain the financial books and records of the Church; (vi) prepare financial reports at least annually; (vii) perform other duties as assigned by the Executive Committee; (viii) if required by the Executive Committee, give a bond for the faithful discharge of his or her duties in a sum and with a surety as determined by the Executive Committee; and (ix) perform all of the duties incident to the office of treasurer.

(e) Officer Removal, Resignations and Vacancies.

- (i) Removal. All Church officers, other than the Senior Pastor may be removed, with or without cause, by unanimous agreement of the other members of the Executive Committee or the Consensus of the Elder Board. In accordance with these Bylaws and all biblical mandates qualifying a person for local church governance, the Senior Pastor may act in an emergency to suspend any Elder Board member, such action being subject to earliest possible ratification by the Executive Committee.
- (ii) Resignation. Any Officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Executive Committee Chairman or the Elder Board Chairman. Any such resignation shall take effect on the date of the receipt of such notice, or at any later time specified therein; and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.
- (iii) Vacancies. A vacancy in any office shall be filled only in the manner prescribed in these Bylaws for regular appointment to that office.

8.04 SENIOR PASTOR

- (a) Roles and Responsibilities. The Senior Pastor shall hold office until he resigns or is removed pursuant to Section 8.04(b). The Senior Pastor of the Church is a Member of the Elder Board, a de-facto member of the Executive Committee and responsible for leading the Church in accordance with biblical principles as set forth in Scripture.
- (b) Removal of Senior Pastor. Subject to the rights, if any, under any contract or covenants of employment with the Church, the Senior Pastor shall only be removed, by unanimous recommendation of the Executive Committee and by the consensus of the Elder Board at any general or special meeting duly noticed pursuant to Section 7.05 of these Bylaws. The Senior Pastor shall only be removed from office, subject to the terms of any employment agreement or covenants, for any of the following reasons: (i) disqualifies himself as a result of a violation of the Sexual Immorality Policy; (ii) engaging in conduct that is in opposition to the best interest of the Church; (iii) teaching doctrines inconsistent with the Bible; (iv) neglect of duties; (v) resignation; or (vi) death, long-term disability or incapacity.
- (c) Senior Pastor Vacancies. In the event of a vacancy, for any reason, in the office of Senior Pastor, the Executive Committee shall oversee the process of filling the vacancy. Specifically:
 - (i) The Executive Committee shall act as a Senior Pastor Selection Committee and shall select a Senior Pastor candidate and present the candidate to Executive Staff and the Elder Board as a nomination for Senior Pastor. The nomination must be a unanimous decision of the Executive Committee.
 - (ii) The candidate will be presented to the Elder Board for consensus approval.

- (iii) The Elder Board will then present the candidate to the Congregation for prayer and feedback.
- (iv) The Elder Board will then make a final consensus decision on the candidate and if approved shall then direct the Executive Committee to proceed with hiring the nominee as the new Senior Pastor.

ARTICLE 9 - TRANSACTIONS OF THE CHURCH

9.01 CONTRACTS AND LEGAL INSTRUMENTS

Subject to Article 12 of these Bylaws, the Executive Committee may authorize an individual officer or agent of the Church to enter into a contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Church. This authority may be limited to a specific contract or instrument, or it may extend to any number and type of possible contracts and instruments.

9.02 DEPOSITS

All funds of the Church shall be deposited for the credit of the Church in banks, trust companies, or other depositories that the Executive Committee approves.

9.03 GIFTS

The Executive Committee, acting on behalf of the Elder Board, may accept on behalf of the Church any contribution, gift, bequest, or devise for the general purposes or any special purpose of the Church including, but not limited to, gifts of money, annuity arrangements, securities, and other tangible and intangible personal property, real property, and interest therein. The Executive Committee may make gifts and give charitable contributions that are not prohibited by these Bylaws, the Articles, state law, or any requirements for maintaining the Church's federal and state tax status.

9.04 OWNERSHIP AND DISTRIBUTION OF PROPERTY

- (a) The Church shall hold, own, and enjoy its own personal and real property, without any right of reversion to another entity, except as provided in these Bylaws.
- (b) "Dissolution" means the complete disbanding of the Church so that it no longer functions as a congregation or as a corporate entity. Upon the Dissolution of the Church, its property shall be applied and distributed as follows: (i) all liabilities and obligations of the Church shall be paid and discharged, or adequate provision shall be made therefore; (ii) assets held by the Church upon condition requiring return, transfer, or conveyance, which condition occurs by reason of the Dissolution, shall be returned, transferred, or conveyed in accordance with such requirements; (iii) assets received and not held upon a condition requiring return, transfer, or conveyance by reason of the Dissolution, shall be transferred or conveyed to one or more domestic or foreign corporations, societies, or organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and are engaged in activities substantially similar to those of the Church; any such distribution shall be done pursuant to a plan adopted by the Executive Committee, acting on behalf of the Elder Board; and (iv) any assets not otherwise disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Church is then located, for such purposes and to such organizations as such court shall determine, provided such organizations are in agreement with the Church's Statement of Faith and basic form of Government.

ARTICLE 10 - BOOKS & RECORDS

10.01 REQUIRED BOOKS AND RECORDS

The Church shall keep correct and complete books and records of account. No Member or other person shall have the right to examine any personnel, financial, medical or other information that would in the determination of the Executive Committee invade the personal privacy of the Staff, Members, contributors, attendees or guests.

10.02 FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the Church shall begin on the first day of January and end on the last day of December in each year.

10.03 AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Church shall have each annual financial statement of the Church audited by a certified public accounting firm selected by the Audit Committee. Upon completion, this audit will be made available to the congregation via web site or other appropriate means consistent with other similar organizations, as determined by the Finance Committee.

ARTICLE 11 - INDEMNIFICATION; STANDARD OF CARE

11.01 INDEMNIFICATION

The Church may provide a trust fund, insurance, or other arrangement to effectuate this Article. As described herein, requests for indemnification shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(a) Mandatory Indemnification. To the maximum extent permitted by the Act (provided, however, that if an amendment to the Act in any way limits or restricts the indemnification rights permitted by law as of the date of adoption of these Bylaws, such amendment shall apply only to the extent mandated by law and only to activities of persons subject to indemnification under this Section which occur subsequent to the effective date of such amendment), the Church shall indemnify and advance expenses to any person who is or was an Executive Committee member, Elder, Pastor, ministry director (“Director”), Deacon, Officer, ministry leader or Staff of the Church, or to such person’s heirs, executors, administrators and legal representatives, for the defense of any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, and whether formal or informal (the “Proceeding”), to which such person was, is or is threatened to be made, a named defendant or respondent, which indemnification and advancement of expenses shall include counsel fees actually incurred as a result of the Proceeding or any appeal thereof, reasonable expenses actually incurred with respect to the Proceeding, all fines, judgments, penalties and amounts paid in settlement thereof, subject to the following conditions:

- (1) The Proceeding was instituted by reason of the fact that such person is or was an Executive Committee member, Elder, Pastor, Director, Deacon, Officer, ministry leader or Staff of the Church; and
- (2) The Executive Committee member, Elder, Pastor, Director, Deacon, Officer, ministry leader or Staff conducted himself in good faith, and he reasonably believed (A) in the case of conduct in his official capacity with the Church, that his conduct was in its best interest; (B) in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the Church; and (C) in the case of any criminal proceeding, that he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, determinative that the Executive Committee member or officer did not meet the standard of conduct herein described.

(b) Permissive Indemnification. The Church may, to the maximum extent permitted by the Act (provided, however, that if an amendment to the Act in any way limits or restricts the indemnification rights permitted by law as of the date of adoption of these Bylaws, such amendment shall apply only to the extent mandated by law and only to activities of persons subject to indemnification under this Section which occur subsequent to the effective date of such amendment), indemnify and advance expenses in a Proceeding to any person who is or was an Executive Committee member, Elder, Pastor, Director, Deacon, Officer, ministry leader or Staff or volunteer of the Church, or to such person’s heirs, executors, administrators and legal representatives, to the same extent as set forth in Section 11.01(a), provided that the Proceeding was instituted by reason of the fact (or allegation) that such person is or was an employee or agent of the Church and met the standards of conduct set forth in Section 11.01(a). The Church may also indemnify and advance expenses in a Proceeding to any person who is or was an Executive Committee member, Elder, Pastor, Director, Deacon, Officer, ministry leader, Staff or volunteer of the Church to the extent doing so is consistent with public policy or as may be provided by the Church’s Constitution, by these Bylaws, by contract, or by general or specific action of the Executive Committee.

- (c) Good Faith Reliance. The Elders and Executive Committee members may in good faith rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, concerning the Church or another person that were prepared or presented by a variety of persons, including Staff of the Church, professional advisors or experts such as accountants or legal counsel. An Elder Board or Executive Committee member is not relying in good faith if he has knowledge concerning a matter in question that renders reliance unwarranted. No Elder Board or Executive Committee member shall have personal liability for actions taken or omitted by an advisor if the advisor was selected in good faith and with ordinary care.
- (d) No Duties as Trustees. No Elder Board and Executive Committee members shall be deemed to have the duties of a trustee of a trust with respect to the Church or with respect to any Property held or administered by the Church, including property that may be subject to restrictions imposed by the donor or transferor of the property.

ARTICLE 12 - CONFLICT OF INTEREST

12.01 PURPOSE

The Church seeks to operate, at all times and wherever possible, in its own fiduciary interest and in the best interest of its Members. The Church's Elder and Deacon Conflict of Interest Policy is intended to allow the Church to operate in a manner that is free from both real and perceived conflicts of interest, and where such conflicts cannot be avoided or are desirable, to protect the Church by assuring a mechanism for maintaining the Church's interest above the interests of those serving in leadership roles. This policy is intended to supplement, but not replace, any applicable state and federal laws governing conflicts of interest, or fiduciary responsibility applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

12.02 DEFINITIONS

- (a) Interested Person. Any non-Staff individual who has a potential direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an Interested Person.
- (b) Potential Conflict of Interest. A person has a potential direct or indirect conflict of interest if the person or their immediate family has or receives, directly or indirectly, through business investment, any of the following:
- (i) An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Church has or is considering a business relationship or transaction;
 - (ii) A financial compensation, including direct or indirect remuneration, as well as any gifts or favors that are not insubstantial, from any entity or individual with which the Church has or is considering a business relationship or transaction;

- (iii) Is a member of the board or senior executive in any entity which has a like or similar religious mission; or
 - (iv) Is a member of the board or senior executive in any entity with which the Church has or is considering a partnering or ministry relationship or transaction.
- (c) Disclosure of Potential Conflicts of Interest. An Interested Person is required to make voluntary, proactive, written representation to the Executive Committee, on behalf of the Elder Board, of the full and exact nature of all Potential Conflicts of Interest.

12.03 PROCEDURES

- (a) Executive Committee and Elder Board Eligibility. Elder Board members, and for the avoidance of doubt, Executive Committee members, may not be Interested Persons.
- (b) Duty to Disclose. In connection with any Potential Conflict of Interest, an Interested Person must disclose the existence of the Potential Conflict of Interest and all relevant facts to the Executive Committee, on behalf of the Elder Board, in writing at the time any potential business relationship or transaction is contemplated involving an Interested Person.
- (c) Process for Evaluating Potential Conflicts of Interest and Making Final Determination of Conflicts of Interest. The Executive Committee, on behalf of the Elder Board, shall be the entity responsible for reviewing disclosure information and determining whether a real or perceived Conflict of Interest exists and if so, whether and how the parties shall work to:
- (i) Wherever possible, eliminate the Conflict of Interest; or,
 - (ii) Where in the best interests of the Church, limit the effects of the Conflict of Interest; or,
 - (iii) Where necessary, for further consideration and consensus, bring the matter before the Elder Board for resolution.
- (d) Procedures for Appealing a Conflict of Interest Decision.
- (i) An Interested Person may make a presentation to the Executive Committee or an appropriate standing committee (Finance, Audit Nominating), acting on behalf of the Elder Board, but after the presentation, he or she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of the transaction or arrangement involving the Potential Conflict of Interest
 - (ii) The Executive Committee, on behalf of the Elder Board, may, if appropriate, appoint a non-Interested Person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement and recommend for Elder Board approval a solution in order to accept the conflicted party that mitigates the Conflict of Interest or choose an alternate solution, vendor or course of action.

- (e) Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy. If the Executive Committee has reasonable cause to believe a member of the Elder Board, Executive Committee, Finance Committee, Audit Committee, Nominating Committee or Deacon Board has failed to disclose actual or potential Conflicts of Interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose and the Executive Committee shall take appropriate action, if any, as the circumstances warrant, including up to immediate dismissal from the relevant board or committee.

ARTICLE 13 - WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

13.01 PURPOSE

The Church requires all of its Elders, Directors, Pastors, Officers, Deacons, employees, and volunteers to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. If a Member or regular attendee observes or has firsthand knowledge that the Church, by and through its Elders, Directors, Pastors, Officers, employees, or volunteers, or entities with whom the Church has a business relationship, is in violation of applicable law or regulation, or any policy or procedure of the Church, then that individual shall file a written complaint with either his or her supervisor, the director of human resources, the Executive Committee Chairman or the Elder Board Chairman.

13.02 PROCEDURE

- (a) Reporting Responsibility. It is the responsibility of all of the Church's Elders, Directors, Pastors, Officers, Deacons, employees, and volunteers to report violations or suspected violations in accordance with the Policy.

If an Elder, Executive Committee member, Pastor, Officer, Director, Deacon, employee, or volunteer of the Church reasonably believes that any policy, practice, or activity of the Church is in violation of any applicable law, regulation, policy, procedure of the Church, or action contrary to Scripture then a formal complaint should be filed as outlined herein.

- (b) Acting in Good Faith. Anyone filing a complaint concerning a violation or suspected violation of any applicable law, regulation, policy, or procedure of the Church must be acting in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information indicates a violation of the applicable law, regulation, policy, or procedure of the Church. Any allegations that prove not to be substantiated and which prove to have been made maliciously or knowingly to be false will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense.
- (c) Reporting Violations. In most cases, an employee or volunteer's supervisor or the director of human resources is in the best position to address an area of concern. However, if the reporting individual is not comfortable speaking with his or her supervisor, or the reporting individual is not satisfied with his or her supervisor's response, the reporting individual is encouraged to Speak with the following offices and follow the order of this chain of authority: 1) Campus Pastor, 2) Senior Executive Pastor, 3) Executive Committee Chairman. Elders are required to report suspected violations in the same chain of authority as stated above.

- (d) Accounting and Auditing Matters. The Finance Committee and Audit Committee shall address all reported concerns or complaints regarding corporate accounting practices, internal controls, or auditing.
- (f) Investigation of Complaint. If the complaint is against a Staff member other than an executive staff member, the chain of authority stated herein shall be responsible and determine whether an investigation is appropriate and the form that it should take. If the complaint is against a person of the executive Staff then the Executive Committee, on behalf of the Elder Board, shall determine whether an investigation is appropriate and the form that it should take. Concerns may be resolved through the initial inquiry by agreed action without the need for further investigation. The Executive Committee Chairman shall communicate with the Elder Board by delivering a summary report on each complaint and a follow-up report on action taken.

13.03 SAFEGUARDS

- (a) Confidentiality. Reports of violations will be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation.

Concerns expressed anonymously will be investigated, but consideration will be given to:

- The seriousness of the issue raised;
- The credibility of the concern; and
- The likelihood of confirming the allegation from documentation and/or other sources.

Anonymity cannot be assured if an external investigation or criminal proceedings relating to the report occur.

- (b) No Retaliation. No reporting individual who, in good faith, reports a violation shall suffer harassment, retaliation, adverse employment consequence, or adverse membership consequence because of such report.
- (c) Harassment or Victimization. Harassment or victimization of the reporting individual for providing information in accordance with this policy by anyone affiliated with the Church will not be tolerated.
- (d) Malicious Allegations. The safeguards stated in this policy do not apply to individuals who make malicious allegations. Such allegations may result in disciplinary action, including but not limited to termination of employment and/or dismissal of membership.

ARTICLE 14 - MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

14.01 AMENDMENTS TO BYLAWS

These Bylaws may only be altered, amended, restated or repealed, and new or restated Bylaws may only be adopted by a Consensus of the Elder Board.

14.02 CONSTRUCTION OF BYLAWS

These Bylaws shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois. All references in these Bylaws to statutes, regulations, or other sources of legal authority shall refer to the authorities cited, or their successors, as they may be amended from time to time. If any Bylaw provision is held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any respect, the invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision and the Bylaws shall be construed as if the invalid, illegal, or unenforceable provision had not been included in the Bylaws. The headings used in the Bylaws are used for convenience and shall not be considered in construing the terms of the Bylaws. Wherever the context requires, all words in the Bylaws in the male, female or neuter genders shall be deemed to include the other genders, all singular words shall include the plural, and all plural words shall include the singular. Wherever used, the words “include,” “includes” and “including” shall be deemed to be followed by the phrase “without limitation.”

14.03 POWER OF ATTORNEY / EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE RESOLUTION

A person may execute any instrument related to the Church and with the intent to legally bind the Church by means of a power of attorney or resolution of the Executive Committee, if a copy of the original executed copy of the power of attorney is provided to the secretary of the Church or the Church’s General Counsel to be kept with the Church records.

14.04 PARTIES BOUND

The rights, obligations and duties established by these Bylaws are intended to apply to the Church, as well as its Members, Executive Committee members, Elders, officers, Deacons, pastors, directors, employees, and agents of the Church, as well as to any of their heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors or assigns.

14.05 CHRISTIAN ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

In keeping with 1 Corinthians 6:1-8, all disputes, other than those which are subject to the jurisdiction of the ecclesiastical tribunal in Section 7.01(a), which may arise between any Member and the Church itself, or between any Member and any Pastor, Executive Committee member, Director, Deacon, officer, employee, volunteer, agent, or other member of this Church, shall be resolved by mediation, and if not resolved by mediation, then by binding arbitration under the procedures and supervision of the Rules of Procedure for Christian Conciliation, Institute for Christian Conciliation, or similar faith-based mediation and arbitration group. In the event that the Institute for Christian Conciliation ceases to exist during the course of this Agreement, arbitration under this Section shall be conducted according to the rules of the American Arbitration Association. Judgment upon an arbitration award may be entered in any court otherwise having jurisdiction. The parties each agree to bear their own costs related to any mediation or arbitration proceeding including payment of their own attorneys' fees. Either party may file a motion seeking temporary injunctive relief from a court of competent jurisdiction in order to maintain the status quo until the underlying dispute or claim can be submitted for mediation or arbitration.

If a dispute may result in an award of monetary damages that could be paid under a Church insurance policy, then use of the conciliation, mediation, and arbitration procedure is conditioned on acceptance of the procedure by the liability insurer of the Church and the insurer's agreement to honor any mediation, conciliation or arbitration award up to any applicable policy limits. The mediation, conciliation, and arbitration process is not a substitute for any disciplinary process set forth in the Bylaws of the Church, and shall in no way affect the authority of the Church to investigate reports of misconduct, to conduct hearings, or to administer discipline of Members.

14.06 CHURCH DISRUPTIONS

Any person deemed by the Elder Board to: (a) be in substantial disagreement with the doctrine and interpretation of the Bible; (b) pose a physical or psychological threat to any person or to the Church; or (c) be causing, about to cause, or capable of causing disruption to the religious services and activities of the Church shall be considered a trespasser on Church property and may be ejected summarily. No Executive Committee member, Elder, Pastor, Director, Deacon, officer, volunteer or ministry leader shall incur any liability for acting in good faith in the interests of the Church pursuant to this Section.

ARTICLE 15 - EMERGENCY POWERS AND BYLAWS

In the event of an emergency or catastrophic event by which the majority of men who hold the governing offices of the Executive Committee have died or become unavailable including by reason of illness, incapacity, incarceration, kidnapping or an event that permanently separates those men from the Church (such event, an "Emergency"), the Senior Pastor and Executive Committee or if the Senior Pastor is not available then the next-highest-ranking staff member with the Executive Committee may: (x) modify lines of succession to accommodate the incapacity of any Executive Committee member, pastor, Director, Deacon, officer, employee or agent; and/or (y) relocate the principal office, designate alternative principal offices or regional office, or authorize officers to do so. During an Emergency:

- (a) notice of a meeting of the Executive Committee needs to be given only to those Executive Committee members for whom such notice is practicable. The form of such notice may also include notice by publication (including electronic publication) or broadcast;
- (b) one or more officers or Senior Staff members present at a meeting of the Executive Committee may be deemed Executive Committee members for the meeting;

- (c) action(s) taken in good faith during such Emergency binds the Church and may not be the basis for imposing liability on any Executive Committee member, officer, Pastor, Director, Deacon, employee or agent of the Church on the ground that the action was not authorized;
- (d) the Executive Committee may also adopt emergency bylaws, subject to amendments or repeal by the full Executive Committee, which may include (i) provisions necessary for managing the Church during the Emergency; (ii) procedures for calling a meeting of the Executive Committee; (iii) designation of additional or substitute Executive Committee members. The emergency bylaws shall remain in effect during the Emergency and not after the Emergency ends.

CERTIFICATION OF ADOPTION OF BYLAWS

I certify that I am the duly selected and acting on behalf and in representation of the Elders of Harvest Bible Chapel of _____, Inc., an (Name of US State) _____ Nonprofit Corporation, does hereby certify that the attached Bylaws of said Church were adopted by the official act of the Board of Elders on _____ and the same do now constitute the Bylaws of the Church.

Dated this ____ day of _____, 20 ____ .

Chairman

GOVERNMENT OF HARVEST BIBLE CHAPEL

ATTACHMENT D

Harvest is committed to upholding the Bible's teaching that men who hold the offices of Elder and Deacon are to oversee various functions of the local church.

The Bible's teaching on the subject of two church offices is found in 1 Timothy 3:1-16 and Titus 1:5-9. Although there are three terms used for the offices of the church: bishop, elder, and deacon, analysis of these terms indicates that bishop and elder are used interchangeably.

ELDER QUALIFICATIONS

(Titus 1:6-9)

- Above reproach
- Able to teach
- Husband to one wife
- Not addicted to wine
- Temperate
- Not antagonistic
- Prudent
- Uncontentious
- Respectable
- Free from the love of money
- Hospitable
- Manage own household
- Not a new convert

ELDER DUTIES

The Scriptures show that the elders serve by leading and that their responsibility involves the spiritual oversight of the congregation. All elders are equal in authority but not necessarily equal in influence.

The elders' primary responsibilities include:

- Doctrine - Ensuring that the doctrine of the church is biblical; all doctrinal issues in the church will be settled by the Board of Elders.
- Direction - Ensuring that the direction of the church is consistent with the Harvest Bible Chapel statement of purpose and the Four Pillars.
- Discipline - Administering in love and humility the process of church discipline as outlined in Matthew 18:15-20; Galatians 6:1-4; Titus 3:10; 2 Thessalonians 3:14-15; 1 Timothy 5:17-25; 1 Corinthians 5; 2 Corinthians 2:5-11, and Romans 16:17.

PLURALITY OF ELDERS

The Scriptures teach that a plurality of elders governed individual New Testament churches (Acts 14:23; Acts 20:28; Titus 1:5; Philippians 1:1). The Scripture does not mention any congregations featuring a stand-alone pastor and leader. A plurality of godly elders, exercising their individual giftedness, squares with the Scripture's teaching that wisdom is found in a multitude of godly counselors (Proverbs 11:14; Proverbs 12:15; Proverbs 15:22; Proverbs 19:20; Proverbs 24:6). This truth does not eliminate the possibility and likelihood that one or more elders will stand out from the others as more public in their ministries or more influential in their workings on the Elder Board.

SENIOR PASTOR

The Harvest Bible Chapel Senior Pastor automatically serves as an elder and, because of his public presence and responsibility before the congregation, may be considered first among equals as a member of the Elder Board. The Senior Pastor should be gifted primarily as a preacher/teacher and as a leader.

DEACONS

The Bible teaches that deacons lead by serving (Acts 6). The qualifications for elders and deacons are the same regarding an individual's character, but they differ in aptitude. The elders are to be able to teach while the deacons are to be able and proved as servants.

DEACON QUALIFICATIONS

(1 Timothy 3:8-12)

- Individual of dignity
- Above reproach
- Not double tongued
- First tested as servants
- Not addicted to wine
- Spouses must be faithful
- Temperate
- Not fond of sordid gain
- Holding to the mystery of faith with a clear conscience
- Husband of one wife
- Manages household well

TRADEMARK SUBLICENSE AGREEMENT

ATTACHMENT E

This document outlines the details of agreement between Harvest Bible Chapel (HBC), Harvest Bible Fellowship (HBF) and Harvest Bible Chapel _____ (HBCx) regarding the use of the all Harvest trademarks registrations. The Effective Date of this agreement is the ____ day of _____, 20___. The following ground level assumptions are central:

- HBC is the owner of all trademark registrations (“Marks”) and applications (see Attachment F)
- HBF has been charged by HBC with the right to sublicense these Marks
- HBCx has entered into a relationship and is in good standing with HBF as outlined in the document called “Commitments of a Core Group”
- HBCx desires use of the Marks in connection with its church mission as approved by and under the control of HBC as described in this Sublicense Agreement.
- HBF is willing to grant use of these Marks by HBCx.

GRANT

HBF grants HBCx a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferrable right to used the Marks as outlined in the terms and conditions outlined in this document.

RESERVATION AND OWNERSHIP OF RIGHTS

1. HBCx acknowledges HBC’s exclusive ownership of the entire rights, title and interest in the Marks, and recognizes the value of goodwill associated with the Marks.
2. HBCx neither has nor under any circumstances shall gain any ownership interest in the Marks.
3. HBCx acknowledges that during the term of this agreement or after, that it shall not directly or indirectly do anything which may jeopardize or adversely affect the distinctiveness, enforceability or ownership of the Marks, the goodwill associated with the Marks or the validity of any future registration of any of the Marks.

QUALITY, NOTICES, APPROVALS AND SAMPLES

1. HBCx agrees that its use of the Marks shall conform to the standard set by and be under the control of HBC and agrees to comply with all standards and directions of HBC for use of the Marks whether communicated by HBC or HBF.
2. HBCx agrees that upon request from HBC or HBF to supply copies, photographs or samples of materials bearing the Marks (e.g. promotional literature, signage, advertising material, letterhead, stationary, websites, blogs).
3. In the event that HBC/HBF reasonably believes that any use of the Marks by HBCx does not comply with HBC standards, they may request specific changes and HBCx shall use its best efforts to implement such changes within a reasonable time period.

TRADEMARK PROTECTION AND INFRINGEMENT

1. HBCx agrees to assist HBC and HBF in the protection of HBC's rights with respect to the Marks, but shall not have the right to institute proceedings with respect to these Marks for any reason, a right reserved for HBC.
2. HBCx will notify HBC of any act of infringement, passing off or other unauthorized use of the Marks which comes to its attention, and HBC shall have the sole right in those instances to determine whether any action shall be taken.
3. If the use of the Marks outlined in this agreement is asserted by a third party to be an infringement upon rights of that party, then HBCx agrees to cease further use of those Marks as directed by HBC or HBF.

ROYALTY

HBCx agrees to pay HBF a royalty in the amount of five percent (5%) of its "Projected Annual Budget" (as described in the Commitments of a Core Group document) throughout the term of this Sublicense Agreement.

TERM AND TERMINATION

1. This Sublicense Agreement shall have an initial term of one (1) year commencing on the Effective Date of this agreement, unless terminated prior to that by either party, and shall automatically be renewed for an additional one-year period.
2. HBC or HBF shall have the right to terminate this Sublicense Agreement at any time for any reason upon ninety (90) days notice to HBCx. Upon such termination, HBCx shall cease and forever abstain from use of the Marks for any purpose whatsoever.
3. This Sublicense Agreement shall terminate automatically and immediately upon the termination of the License Agreement dated February 24, 2010 between the HBC and HBF.
4. HBCx shall have the right to terminate this Sublicense Agreement at anytime for any reason with thirty (30) days prior written notice to HBF. Immediately following the notice of termination, but no later than thirty (30) days, the Elders of HBCx shall participate in an in-person meeting with HBC and/or HBF.
5. Upon termination or expiration of this Sublicense Agreement:
 - All rights granted to HBCx under this agreement shall immediately revert back to HBC.
 - HBCx shall cease all use of the Marks and shall remove the Marks from all promotional literature, signage, advertising materials, letterhead, stationary, websites, blogs, other public/personal media, or any materials related to the Sublicense Agreement within thirty (30) days of the written notice of termination.
 - HBCx will change any and all legal documents bearing the Marks, including the corporate name, tradename, and charitable registration, with written confirmation of such change sent to HBF within forty-five (45) days from the termination of this Sublicense Agreement.

ASSIGNABILITY

The rights granted to HBCx under this Sublicense Agreement may not be assigned, transferred, or further sublicensed by HBCx.

MISCELLANEOUS

1. Any disputes arising between HBC/HBF and HBCx shall be resolved through the biblical process identified in Matthew 18 and Colossians 3, with all reasonable efforts to resolve the dispute within thirty (30) days of written notice by HBC/HBF or HBCx of any dispute.
2. If the dispute is not resolved within this time period, the dispute shall be referred to a mediator, agreed upon by HBC/HBF and HBCx, for mediation. Each party must bear its own costs and must bear equally the cost of the mediator. The decision of the mediator shall not be final or binding on either of the parties. Following mediation, any party may commence any other proceeding available at law. If no mediator is appointed the parties may commence any other proceedings available at law.
3. All disputes, litigation, proceedings, or other legal actions by any party to the Sublicense Agreement shall be handled in the federal courts as sitting in the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division, USA.
4. This Sublicense Agreement, including the attachments, constitute the entire agreement among the parties and supersede any previous agreements and understandings between the parties with respect to such matters. Attachments A and B are considered part of this Sublicense Agreement.
5. This Sublicense Agreement may be amended, modified, or superseded only by an instrument in writing signed by each of the parties. However, all parties agree that HBC or HBF may add Sublicense Marks to Attachment A from time to time. Any such revision shall become effective by providing a new Attachment A to HBCx.
